General Information

Types of Financial Support

UCLA Fellowships & Grants: Merit-based awards provide stipends in varying amounts and may include tuition, fees and nonresident supplemental tuition. Awards are competitive and open to all graduate students.

Extramural Fellowships: Merit-based support provided by national, international or private foundations. Many organizations accept applications up to a year before acceptance into a graduate program.

Financial Aid: Funding based on financial need available only to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Financial aid includes loans and work-study awards. For more information, go to www.financialaid.ucla.edu.

Graduate Work-Study Program (GWSP): Provides federal work-study grants to “financially need eligible” U.S. citizen and permanent resident graduate students to complete on- or off-campus part-time paid internships, community service, research projects or other endeavors closely related to their academic degree program. Graduate students working on a research project in their discipline qualify for funding. For more information contact the Fellowships and Financial Services Office, 1228 Murphy Hall, (310) 825-1025, www.grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/gwspintro.htm.

Teaching & Research Assistantships: Teaching Assistantships provide experience in teaching undergraduates with faculty supervision. Graduate Student Researcher positions provide experience working on faculty-supervised research projects. Selection of awardees for teaching assistantships and graduate student research positions are conducted by each department. Students should contact their department for Application Procedures and deadlines. For more information see the Academic Apprentice Personnel Manual: www.grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/appmintro.htm.

Professional Degree Supplemental Tuition: Students in professional degree programs such as but not limited to Architecture, Art, Film and Television, Law, Management, Nursing, Public Health, Public Policy, Social Welfare, Theater and Urban and Regional Planning also pay Professional Degree Supplemental Tuition and other program-related fees, depending on the program. Coverage from Graduate Division-funded fellowships excludes these professional and program-related charges.

A student may receive both a departmental or Graduate Division award and an award based solely on financial need if the need-based criteria are met. For all Graduate Division awards, students must be continuously registered and enrolled full-time each term (minimum of 12 units) and maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average (2.5 for Law School students). For departmental allocation awards sourced from Graduate Division funds, full-time enrollment is 8 units.

During the academic year, all Graduate Division fellowship recipients may work up to 25% time. Employment over 25% time requires an approved exception.
Students are strongly urged to apply in all categories for which they may qualify.

Notification and Acceptance of Awards

Students are notified as soon as award decisions are made, from spring through early fall. Notification of a teaching assistantship, graduate student researcher appointment, or departmental fellowship is sent directly by the department.

As a member of the Council of Graduate Schools in the United States, UCLA subscribes to the following CGS resolution regarding acceptance of graduate scholarships, fellowships, traineeships, and assistantships:

“Acceptance of an offer of financial aid (such as a graduate scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year by an actual or prospective graduate student completes an agreement which both student and graduate school expect to honor. In those instances in which the student accepts the offer before April 15 and subsequently desires to withdraw, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15 commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which a commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15 is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer. It is further agreed by the institutions and organizations subscribing to the above resolution that a copy of this resolution should accompany every scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, and assistantship offer.”

Supplementation

Supplementation refers to the amount and type of funding that students can accept from more than one source. Supplementation of fellowships and traineeships funded by federal, state, or private agencies is restricted by the limits set forth by the particular agency. Recipients of these awards should consult the appropriate agency for complete information. The Graduate Division Supplementation policy can be found on the web at www.grad.ucla.edu/asis/infoserv/supplem.htm. Other questions regarding the supplementation policy at UCLA can be referred to staff in the Fellowships and Financial Services Office, 1228 Murphy Hall, (310) 825-1025.

Maximum Limit of Merit-Based Support

The Graduate Council has established a Policy of Maximum Limit on the total amount of support a graduate student may receive. It includes any fellowships, stipends, and TA/RA earnings. The maximum limit will vary for each student. Please see: https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/maxsupport.htm.

To calculate the maximum limit of support that a student may receive, use the following formula:

Need-based stipend is the estimated budget for living expenses established by the Financial Aid & Scholarships Office and published annually at www.financialaid.ucla.edu/Graduate/Cost-of-Attendance. The limits are generous. If an exception to the Maximum Limit is required, the student’s home academic department must submit an exception to the Graduate Division.

If you have questions regarding the maximum limit of merit-based support, please contact the Graduate Fellowships and Financial Services Office at gdsupport@grad.ucla.edu or 310-825-1025.

Tax Treatment of Student Financial Support

Fellowship stipend income is taxed differently than most other types of income students may have encountered in the past. Amounts spent on fees, tuition, or required course expenses are not taxable. However, the portion of fellowship stipend income spent on items other than fees, tuition, and required course expenses will likely be considered taxable by the IRS. The language used to denote an award—for example, fellowship, grant, assistantship, scholarship, traineeship—does not affect the taxability of the funds.

U.S. citizens, permanent residents, and resident aliens for federal tax purposes do not have taxes withheld from their fellowship stipend checks. Nonetheless, these individuals may be required to make estimated quarterly tax payments and to report the income on their tax returns. Awardees should consult a tax preparer and/or view the information provided in Internal Revenue Service Publication 970 (www.irs.gov/Forms-&-Pubs).

Students are advised to retain “Offer of Graduate Student Support” agreements, fellowship and traineeship offer letters, BAR monthly statements and other documents and receipts related to fellowship stipends and course expenses. The UCLA Dashew Center for International Students & Scholars (www.internationalcenter.ucla.edu) offers workshops regarding tax preparation during winter/spring quarter to international students and scholars.

Tax information is available at:

- www.grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/taxintro.htm

California Residency Requirement

Students must petition in person at the Registrar’s Office for a change of classification from nonresident to resident status. All changes of status must be initiated by the deadline set by the Registrar’s Office for each term. In addition, California law requires that financial independence be included among the factors considered when students seek reclassification. Students who are financially dependent in the current and preceding calendar years will be considered California residents for reclassification purposes only if no factors exist that give evidence of their continuing residence in another state. Financial independence will not be considered for graduate students who are graduate student instructors, teaching assistants, research assistants or teaching associates employed at 49% time or more. For more information on residency requirements please visit: www.registrar.ucla.edu/residence.

Reduced Nonresident Supplemental Tuition

Doctoral candidates who are nonresidents for tuition purposes and who have formally advanced to doctoral candidacy are eligible for a 100% reduction of their nonresident supplemental tuition. Eligibility for the reduced nonresident supplemental tuition begins with the first academic term following advancement to doctoral candidacy and is limited to nine consecutive academic terms (Leaves of Absence and In-Absentia are counted). A registered PhD or professional doctoral student who meets all of the following criteria is eligible for reduced nonresident supplemental tuition:

- Is classified as a nonresident for tuition purposes;
- Is registered in a doctoral program or professional doctorate program that has an advancement-to-candidacy requirement; and
- Has been approved by the Graduate Division to be advanced to doctoral candidacy by the day before the start of the applicable quarter for which the reduced supplemental tuition is assessed.

If a student is still enrolled and registered beyond the three years, per University of California policy the NRST will be reinstated as of the tenth quarter. If the student is receiving a Graduate Division-administered fellowship at the time the NRST is reinstated, the stipend portion of the fellowship will be applied toward the NRST unless there’s another NRST-payment source on record.

If you have questions regarding nonresident supplemental tuition, please contact the Graduate Fellowships and Financial Services Office at gdsupport@grad.ucla.edu or 310-825-1025.

Nondiscrimination Statement

The University of California, in accordance with applicable Federal and State Laws and University Policies, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, age, medical condition (e.g., cancer-related), ancestry, marital status, citizenship, sexual orientation or status as a Vietnam-era veteran or special disabled veteran. The University also prohibits sexual harassment. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission, access and treatment in University programs and activities.

Inquiries regarding the University’s student-related nondiscrimination policies may be directed to the UCLA Campus Counsel, 3149 Murphy Hall, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1405, (310) 825-4042.

Inquiries regarding Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or 504 compliance may be directed to Monroe Gorden, ADA and 504 Compliance Officer, 2221 Murphy Hall, UCLA, Box 951410, Los Angeles, CA 90095-1410, (310) 825-1514 or (310) 825-2242, TTY (310) 206-3349, www.ada.ucla.edu.

Students may complain about any action they believe discriminates against them on the grounds of race, color, national origin, marital status, sex, sexual orientation, disability or age, and may contact the Office of the Dean of Students, 1206 Murphy Hall and/or refer to Section 111.00 of the University of California Policies Applying to Campus Activities, Organizations, and Students (available in 1206 Murphy Hall) or visit www.universityofcalifornia.edu/news for further information and procedures.

Disclosure of Student Records

Pursuant to the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), the California Education Code and the University of California Policies Applying to the Disclosure of Information from Student Records, students at UCLA have the right (1) to inspect and review records pertaining to themselves in their capacity as students, except as the right may be waived or qualified under the Federal and State Laws and the University Policies, (2) to have withheld from disclosure, absent their prior consent for release, personally identifiable information from their student records, except as provided by the federal and state laws and university policies, (3) to inspect records maintained by UCLA of disclosures of personally identifiable information from their student records, (4) to seek correction of their student records through a request to amend the records or, if such request is denied, through a hearing and (5) to file complaints with the U.S. Department of Education regarding alleged violations of the rights accorded them by the Federal Act.

UCLA, in accordance with the federal and state laws and the university policies, has designated the following categories of personally identifiable information as “public information” that UCLA may release and publish without the student’s prior consent: name; address (local/mailing, permanent and/or email); telephone numbers; major field of study; dates of attendance; number of course units in which enrolled; degrees and honors received; the most recent previous educational institution attended; participation in officially recognized activities (including intercollegiate athletics) and the name, weight and height of participants on intercollegiate athletic teams.

Students who do not wish certain items (e.g., name; local/mailing, permanent and/or email address; telephone numbers; major field of study; dates of attendance; number of course units in which enrolled and degrees and honors received) of this “public information” released and published may so indicate through MyUCLA (www.my.ucla.edu). To restrict the release and publication of the additional items in the category of “public information,” complete the UCLA FERPA Restriction Request form available from Enrollment and Degree Services, 1113 Murphy Hall.

Student records that are the subject of the federal and state laws and the university policies may be maintained in a variety of offices, including the Registrar’s Office, Office of the Dean of Students, UCLA Career Center, Graduate Division, and the offices of a student’s college or school and major department. Students are referred to the UCLA Telephone Directory, which lists all the offices that may maintain student records, together with their campus address and telephone number. Students have the right to inspect their student records in any such office subject to the terms of the federal and state laws and the University policies. Inspection of student records maintained by the Registrar’s Office is by appointment only and must be arranged three working days in advance. Call (310) 825-1354 or inquire at Academic Records Management, 1105 Murphy Hall.
A copy of the federal and state laws, the university policies and the UCLA Telephone Directory may be inspected in the office of the Information Practices Coordinator, Suite 530 UCLA Wilshire Center. Information concerning students’ hearing rights may be obtained from that office and from the Office of the Dean of Students, 1206 Murphy Hall.

In addition to the public information described above, information related to students’ Social Security Number, sex, marital status and the name(s), address(es) and telephone number(s) of their parents or next of kin are made available to the UCLA External Affairs Department for use in alumni, development and public relations activities. To restrict the release of this additional information, complete a Request for University Relations Information Restriction form available from Enrollment and Degree Services, 1113 Murphy Hall.
UCLA Fellowships

Students are encouraged to consult their departments for possible deadline variations. All required supporting documents should be sent directly to the major department. See instructions in each fellowship’s description.

Eligibility to Receive a Fellowship

Students receiving Graduate Division Fellowship awards (e.g., Graduate Research Mentorship, any of the Privately Endowed Fellowships, Dissertation Year Fellowship, etc.) are required to be continuously registered/enrolled in a minimum of 12 units per term for the duration of their fellowship. They must also maintain satisfactory progress in their degree program as determined by their home department/program and with a cumulative 3.0 GPA (2.5 for Law students).

If a student withdraws, takes a Leave of Absence and/or is not continuously enrolled for the applicable funding term, the student must repay any aid advanced for which the student is no longer eligible.

All Graduate Division fellowship recipients may work up to 25% time during the fellowship award period. [An individual who is a UC employee prior to becoming a graduate student is exempt from the maximum appointment percentage.] Note that 100% time is 40 hours per week (includes Apprentice Academic Personnel, staff titles, and UNEX). Employment over 25% time requires an approved exception. All exception requests for student employment must be submitted to the Graduate Division at least three weeks prior to the beginning of the corresponding term. Exceptions for GPA requirement must be submitted by the end of the first week of the term.

IMPORTANT: Some extramural fellowship agencies require awardees to obtain preapproval from the agency before the work can be approved, even at 25%. Check with Fellowships & Financial Services for details: uclafellowship@grad.ucla.edu or 310-825-1025.

The table below describes the maximum percentage of time a fellowship awardee may work per term.

Working as an Academic Apprentice (e.g., Graduate Student Researcher, Special Reader, Teaching Assistant, Teaching Fellow) at a minimum of 25% time qualifies the student for tuition/fee remissions (https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/feeremission.pdf). The Academic Apprentice appointment, and not the Graduate Division fellowship, will pay most of the tuition/fees, with the balance covered by the Graduate Division fellowship. The amount that would have been covered by the Graduate Division fellowship cannot be converted to a stipend or deferred to another term.

Students funded during the summer must have been continuously registered/enrolled during the previous Spring Term and must be continuously registered/enrolled during the following Fall. If not continuously registered/enrolled, the summer award will be cancelled and will need to be repaid. The students also must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA (2.5 for Law students) at time of award (i.e., at the time of payment disbursement).

Please note that students in self-supporting, special fee programs are not eligible to apply for any Graduate Division fellowships. These include the following:

- Architecture – MArch II SUPRASTUDIO
- Economics – Master of Applied Economics
- Education Leadership Program (EdD)
- Engineering Online Master’s Programs (all)
- Management – Executive MBA (EMBA)
- Management – Full-time MBA
- Management – Fully Employed MBA (FEMBA)
- Management – Global Executive MBA for Asia Pacific
- Management – Master’s of Financial Engineering
- Public Health – Executive Master’s of Public Health
- Public Health – Master’s of Public Health for Health Professionals
- School of Law – LLM Program
- Social Science – Master of Social Science
- Statistics – Applied Statistics (MS)

Publicizing Fellowship Awardees

The name and home department of fellowship awardees may be published on the Graduate Division’s website, in its publications and/or posted on its bulletin boards and other Graduate Division venues for educational purposes. Awardees who do not want their information published must submit a statement to this effect when returning the fellowship contract.

NOTE: Change(s) Effective with the 2017–18 Cycle

- The Karekin Der Avedisian Memorial Endowment Fund is no longer being administered by the Graduate Division. The funding is now housed in the department of Near Eastern Languages & Cultures.
- The Steven J. Sackler Scholarship is no longer offered for graduate students.

Concurrent Awards/Fellowships
Recipients offered other awards (e.g., from extramural agencies or department allocations) in addition to the offer of Graduate Division-administered fellowships may, at the Graduate Division’s or department’s discretion, be required to relinquish all or part of the Graduate Division-administered award. In most cases, a student may not hold multiple academic-year stipends from the Graduate Division or from the Graduate Division and another source that total more than a specified amount. For example, in 2016–17, the maximum allowable support from all merit-based sources for a single person living off campus is $48,543.25 for the fiscal year (July through June). Also, a student may not receive a combination of fee/tuition awards that total more than the cost of fees/tuition. In such cases, one or more tuition/fee awards will be canceled and not converted to stipends. For more information, see https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/maxsupport.htm.

Remission Restrictions

If a student is awarded tuition from either unrestricted fellowship funds or Graduate Division Endowed Fellowship awards, and is later appointed under a remissions-eligible title code (TA, GSR, Reader, Special Reader or Tutor), the hiring department will become responsible for paying remissions. Any unrestricted or Graduate Division Special Fellowship or Endowed Fellowship tuition awards will be adjusted, and funding will revert back to the Graduate Division after the February deadline.

In the case of GSRs who qualify for nonresident supplemental tuition (i.e., appointed as a GSR for 45% cumulative time and enrolled in 12 units), the hiring department is responsible for paying the nonresident supplemental tuition remission. In those cases where an eligible GSR was already receiving a nonresident supplemental tuition award from Graduate Division resources (i.e., either departmental allocation funds or an endowed fellowship award), the nonresident supplemental tuition award will be cancelled and those funds returned to the Graduate Division. Policy requires that nonresident supplemental tuition be paid by the same funding source that is paying the GSR salary, except in those cases where the salary derives from state funding sources (e.g., 19900). Neither Graduate Division allocation resources nor endowed fellowship awards can be used to pay the nonresident supplemental tuition for GSRs. No central augmentation will be available to fund nonresident supplemental tuition for GSRs supported by 19900 funding. The hiring department is responsible for identifying an appropriate non-state fund to which the remissions may be charged. For more information on nonresident supplemental tuition policy, please see the Academic Apprentice Personnel (AAP) Manual (https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/aapmanual.pdf).

In the event a department hires a graduate student who does not meet the minimum criteria to be appointed under any of the academic apprentice personnel titles covered in the AAP manual, and an exception is approved, the hiring department will be responsible for covering the cost of remission benefits from non-19900 or 19914 fund sources. NO appropriation will be made at fiscal year end.

Teaching Assistant Positions Google Group (TA Marketplace)

| Purpose           | The purpose of this Teaching Assistant (TA) Positions Google Group is to aid |

Graduate Student Financial Support
graduate students in finding TA opportunities outside of their home academic department. Departments who need to fill TA vacancies will post job announcements to the group along with required qualifications and application instructions as positions become available. Graduate students interested in receiving these postings will subscribe to the group and will be able to view these postings online.

Student Procedure

Only active graduate students may apply for access to the TA-Positions Google Group. Eligible students may subscribe to the TA Google Group through this link: https://grad.ucla.edu/funding/working-at-ucla/teaching-assistantship-positions/.

A Gmail-associated email address is required to access the Google Group. If subscription is requested using a non-Gmail account, students will only be sent email updates regarding open positions and may not access the Group to search for postings on their own.

Students should not be responding to the job announcements but rather communicating with the “Contact Person” listed in the body of the job announcement. Direct replies to the emails may not be received.

Email delivery preferences may be customized in “membership and email settings” (for example: daily, combined or no notifications).

Graduate Division Fellowships

Graduate Summer Research Mentorship Program

Deadline

February 8, 2017

Apply directly to the Graduate Division

Decision

April 12, 2017

Amount

$6,000 stipend.

NOTES: Students funded during the summer must have been continuously registered/enrolled during the previous Spring Quarter and must be continuously registered/enrolled during the following Fall Quarter. Otherwise, their summer funding will be cancelled, and it will have to be repaid.

The students also must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA at time of award (i.e., at the time of payment disbursement).
Purpose

The GSRM Program is designed to provide financial support for UCLA doctoral students in the arts, humanities, social sciences, public health and nursing. It is also designed to release recipients from employment or loan obligations that might delay progress in graduate study. Awardees should consider it as their principal/primary summer activity.

A specific objective of the program is to promote opportunities for students to work closely with a faculty mentor in developing a paper for presentation at an academic conference and/or for publication. General goals are to facilitate close working relationships between faculty and students during the early stages of graduate education, to promote timely degree progress, and to encourage creative scholarship and research productivity.

Program Expectations

GSRM awardees are expected to complete and submit a draft of a paper (either single-authored by the student or co-authored with the faculty mentor) by the end of the summer through the GSRM Program Evaluation. This paper should be submitted for presentation at a professional conference and/or for publication sometime during the following academic year (October–June).

It is expected that the faculty mentor will be in frequent contact with the awardee during the summer and committed to working closely with the student. Awardees and mentors must complete program evaluation at the end of summer.

If the program evaluation and paper are not submitted by the end of the program, recipients will not be considered if applying for this program in subsequent years.

GSRM awardees may not work more than 25% time so as to not detract from the GSRM experience. Furthermore, awardees should be mindful that by accepting funding, they are declaring that this will be their foremost, sole activity in summer. Should a post-audit discover appointment(s) above 25%, the GSRM stipend will be prorated and reduced accordingly (e.g., a 50% TA appointment for a six-week summer session will result in a reduction of the GSRM stipend by at least 46%–6 weeks of the 13 that should have been devoted to the GSRM activities were spent as a TA).

Other Summer Funding

GSRM awardees are not permitted to have other summer funding (e.g., but not limited to: the George and Sakaye Aratani Fellowship, Center for European and Russian Studies Summer Award, Foreign Language and Area Studies [FLAS], Graduate Dean’s Scholar Award, Lenart Travel Fellowship, National Institutes of Health [NIH] Training Grant, National Science Foundation’s Graduate Research Fellowship Program).

If a post-audit reveals multiple summer funding sources, the GSRM will be cancelled, and the student will need to repay the entire stipend.

Preparing a Strong Application

- The mentoring relationship is a key component in this fellowship. The faculty mentor’s letter of recommendation must address the following:
  - Specific mentoring activities and plans that will prepare the applicant’s summer research for publication or conference presentation
  • A clear plan for meetings, progress reports, research development, and expectations for final paper to be presented at a conference and/or for publication

• The applicant’s research overview should be written so that the work will be understandable and its significance appreciated by faculty who may not be experts in the applicant’s field.

• The description of the research paper should present the following, as appropriate to the subject:
  • The question(s), thesis or hypothesis being addressed;
  • The project scope and the research approach, plan or methodology;
  • A synopsis of any preliminary findings, results and/or analysis;
  • The significance, originality and/or impact of the work.

• The relevance and significance of the mentoring activities to the achieving the project goals should be clearly articulated.

• If you have already received a GSRM award, briefly describe how the award enabled you to advance your research skills and progress, and note any presentations and/or publications you have authored or co-authored since receiving the award. Explain why a second GSRM award is justified, as they are made only in exceptional cases.

• Reviewers will evaluate all applications holistically, with particular attention to the:
  • Overall quality of project and proposal
  • Applicant’s readiness for this mentoring fellowship
  • Applicant’s academic record, as reflected in his/her transcripts
  • Mentor’s recommendation

Application Procedure

By applying, students understand that they are giving their consent to disclose application information to University officials and to relevant funding committees. Students nominate themselves for this award. To apply:

- Students must go to the 2017–18 Fellowship Application for Continuing Graduate Students site at www.grad.ucla.edu/asis/flap/apply.htm.
- Upload the following documents in the order listed as a single PDF file. There, upload a single PDF of the following documents (except the letter of recommendation) in the order listed.

1. Overview of Research Paper. Describe the work you will do in the summer to prepare your research for presentation at a regional or national conference and potentially for publication. Include the mentoring activities in which you and your faculty mentor will engage. If you have already received a GSRM award, briefly describe the research progress, presentations and/or publications that resulted from that experience.

2. The document should be a maximum of four pages, double spaced, inclusive of images, graphs, tables, notes and/or references as appropriate. Minimum font size 11 pt., with at least 1” margins. Pages in excess of four pages will not be forwarded for review.

3. An unofficial copy of your Graduate Transcript with Fall 2016 grades posted. The transcript printed from MyUCLA is acceptable. Do not submit a Degree Progress Report (DPR). If Fall Quarter is your first graduate term at UCLA, please include an unofficial transcript from the last college/university attended (even if the last college/university was UCLA).

4. Resume or Curriculum Vitae.
   - If there is a document that should be in landscape position and it is in portrait position, please rotate it before you upload it.

A letter of recommendation from the faculty member who will serve as the mentor... is required. The mentor does not have to be from the same department/program as the applicant.

- In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document. The recommender will not need to email anything to the department Student Affairs Officer.

- The mentor should describe the mentoring relationship and the paper that the student will complete during the summer. If a mentoring relationship has already been established between applicant and faculty member, the letter should distinguish between ongoing and additional mentoring activities that would occur during this period.

- It will be the student’s responsibility to ensure that the letter has been submitted on time. The online site will provide information about the status of the letter’s upload.

- The letter of recommendation is due on or before the GSRM application deadline. Applications missing the letter of recommendation will not be reviewed.

Incomplete applications will not be accepted nor forwarded for review.

| Amount   | $20,000 stipend plus standard tuition and fees (excluding nonresident supplemental tuition and professional degree supplemental tuition).
For 2016–2017, there were approximately 200 fellowships awarded under this program. The number of fellowships for 2017–2018 will depend on available funding.
Among the DYFs offered, up to three may be funded by the following program:
The Siegfried W. Ulmer Dissertation Year Fellowship
Up to three fellowships to support the dissertation year of European graduate students earning their doctoral degree at UCLA and who are in good academic standing. Priority will be given to candidates whose last name or whose mother’s or grandmother’s maiden name is Ulmer, Dehaene, Dalbera or Berenguer. United States citizens with the last name or whose mother’s or grandmother’s maiden name is Haldi are also eligible and are given priority. Each fellowship will offer a $20,000 stipend, mandatory standard tuition and fees (excluding nonresident supplemental tuition and professional degree supplemental tuition). This DYF is offered pending funding availability. |
| Eligibility | Eligible applicants are U.S. citizens, permanent residents, international or registered California AB540 students. For international students, funding is subject to fellowship eligibility in regards to visa type. For those under AB540, funding will | be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship.

Award recipients should complete all degree requirements within 12 months of beginning their dissertation fellowships and will be required to submit a report of their progress at the midpoint. Failure to submit a progress report by the deadline will result in suspension of payment for subsequent terms.

These and the submission and eligibility criteria also apply to Distinguished TA recipients activating their Dissertation Year Fellowship.

Students who have incomplete grades that remain unresolved (i.e., “I” grades) must provide a statement explaining the reason for the incomplete(s), the steps that will be taken to resolve the incomplete(s) and the timeline for doing so.

The following minimum standards must be met or the award will be canceled:

Students must be officially advanced to doctoral candidacy at the time they are nominated by their departments (usually 28 days after the student deadline). “Officially” means ATC documents have been received by the Graduate Division’s Academic Services. Exception: Distinguished TA recipients have until the end of Summer Session C to advance.

Students must file their dissertations within 12 months of beginning their fellowships. The thoroughness with which nominees have provided details in their application for completion of their dissertation is an important element in assessing their candidacy for a Dissertation Year Fellowship.

No student who has previously received any dissertation fellowship from Graduate Division funds (such as, but not limited to, a Distinguished TA Dissertation Year Fellowship) is eligible for a Dissertation Year Fellowship. Students who have received dissertation funding from other sources of funding specifically for the last year of write-up (e.g., Ford Foundation) also are not eligible.

Recipients must be continuously registered and enrolled in at least 12 units during the entire academic year. Registration/enrollment is not required for summer payments. Awardees starting their DYF on July 1 must have been continuously registered/enrolled in the previous Spring and must plan to continuously register/enroll in the following Fall. If not, their summer funding will be cancelled, and it will have to be repaid.

At the time of each payment’s disbursement, recipients must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 and maintain at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA during the entire term of the award.

It is expected that students receiving the Dissertation Year Fellowship will not be employed more than 25% time, including those who activate in the summer.

Dissertation Year Fellows are not eligible to receive Graduate Division funding of any kind after the last DYF payment has been issued.

Students may apply for the DYF in only one doctoral degree program.

A student who receives a UC–HBCU Fellowship is ineligible for the DYF.

• A brief introduction that provides background and context for the work.

• A research plan that describes the current status of the research and the plan for addressing the remaining research aims/goals to complete the dissertation. This section may include images, graphs, and/or tables, if appropriate.

  If applicable, the plan should include information on sampling, instrumentation, data sources and collection, analyses and expected results. A synopsis of preliminary results or analyses may be incorporated as space permits.

• A detailed timeline with projected monthly progress for the remaining research, writing, revision and defense of the dissertation (see “Activation Term Selection” section below).

• An unofficial transcript that includes Fall Quarter 2016 grades. The transcript printed from MyUCLA is acceptable. Do not submit a Degree Progress Report (DPR).

• The student’s personal statement of career goals after receiving the degree (maximum two pages, double-spaced).

• The student’s resume or curriculum vitae that includes the following, as appropriate to the discipline:

  - Education (degrees earned and in progress, with dates; date of advancement to doctoral candidacy)
  - Extramural, departmental and Graduate Division awards, prizes and fellowships (include year and amount)
  - Published and submitted manuscripts, if any, while a doctoral student at UCLA. Provide full citations, including start/end pages. Do not include manuscripts in preparation.
  - Conference presentations, if any, while a doctoral student at UCLA. Indicate the conference date and place, and whether it was a poster or oral presentation. If there are multiple authors, place an asterisk by the name of the presenter.
  - Other creative, academic and professional contributions in the student’s field, such as performances, exhibits, community and public service.

• Two signed letters of reference, one of which must be from the dissertation chair. References should emphasize academic accomplishments, degree progress and feasibility of completing the dissertation within the 12-month period proposed by the applicant.

  - In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document. Repeat this process for the second recommender.
It will be the student’s responsibility to ensure that the letters have been submitted on time. The online site will provide information about the status of the letter’s upload.

The letters of recommendation are due on or before the DYF application deadline. Applications with missing letters of recommendation will not be reviewed.

Activation Term Selection

Awardees have the option to select one of three DYF start dates: July 1, October 1 or January 1. Whichever start date is selected, the awardee will have 12 months during which to complete and file the dissertation. In the application, please propose one of these activation dates. This is not a firm commitment but is essential information for reviewers to evaluate the likelihood that the work will be completed within the proposed timeframe.

Note that the DYF award does not override the deadline by which you can file your dissertation nor the fee(s) you will have to pay as a result of when you file. More details can be found in the Standards and Procedures for Graduate Study at UCLA, which is available at www.grad.ucla.edu/gasaa/library/spfgs.pdf.

Preparing a Strong Application

- The proposal should be written so that the work will be understandable and its significance appreciated by faculty who may not be expert in the applicant’s field.
- The proposal should outline, in a manner appropriate to the subject or discipline:
  - question(s), thesis or hypothesis that will be developed;
  - scope of the research and the research approach, plan or methodology;
  - significance, originality and/or anticipated impact of the work.
- An important review criterion is whether the applicant has provided substantial and compelling evidence that the dissertation can be completed within the funded year.
- Each letter of recommendation should address the merits (e.g., quality, originality, significance) of the scholarship or research, as well as the distinction of the applicant. The letter must clearly state the likelihood the applicant will complete the dissertation within the timeframe described in the applicant’s proposal.

Applying for the Distinguished TA DYF

Distinguished Teaching Assistants (i.e., those selected by UCLA’s Academic Senate) are eligible to apply for the Dissertation Year Fellowship for the coming academic year only. They should meet the eligibility criteria described above except that they have until the end Summer Session C to advance to candidacy.

Distinguished TA DYF applicants should follow the Application Procedures already described.

Employment Exception Request

DYF awardees are expected to only work at most at 25% time. In what should be rare circumstances where awardees wish to work 26% to 50% time, they must submit the information listed below three weeks prior to the start of the term in order for the request to be considered. No work appointments above 50% will be allowed.

1. An exception request on the Graduate Division Intranet (Jasmine) via their home department’s Student Affairs Officer (SAO)/Staff Graduate Advisor.
2. Supplemental materials (described below) to the SAO, who will then forward them to the Fellowships & Financial Services Office:
   - Forward letter (or email) of support from the dissertation chair with detailed information on academic benefit to the student and justification as to how the appointment will not impede progress towards completing the dissertation (e.g., provide hours to be spent on research, mentoring, etc.).

- Include student’s explanation to the department chair for the exception request.
- Provide payroll information; dates of employment, compensation, percentage of time.
- Provide updated timeline of progress on dissertation writing with projected monthly progress for remaining research, writing, revision and defense of dissertation.
- Above 50% employment not permitted.
- 50% appointments as GSR may be considered.
- 50% appointments as TA or other Academic Student Employee (ASE) title will be denied.
- 50% combination of appointments (25% GSR + 25% TA) may be considered.

Publicizing Fellowship Awardees

It will also refer to your scholarly publications and professional... accomplishments.

In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document.

Amount

Several graduate scholarships up to $2,500 each, paid as stipends, which are applied to standard tuition unless the awardee has another tuition-payment source. If there is another tuition-payment source, this award will pay out as a stipend.
Eligibility

UCLA Faculty Women’s Club (FWC) Scholarships are offered to males and females in any area of study that is within the UCLA Graduate Division.

- Entering and continuing graduate students are encouraged to apply.
- Students must have at least a 3.5 GPA to apply.
- Applicants must also demonstrate financial need, as determined by the Financial Aid & Scholarships Office. U.S. citizens and permanent residents should complete a FAFSA form at www.fafsa.ed.gov and submit a copy of Web Submission Confirmation. AB540 students should complete and submit to the Graduate Division the DREAM Act Application at https://dream.csac.ca.gov/Default.aspx. International students should complete the UCLA Financial Statement at www.grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/taxintro.htm.
- Applicants must be available for an interview in the Spring.
- Students on in-absentia status at time of application are not eligible to apply.

There are several scholarships available through the FWC, and applicants only need to apply to the general FWC Scholarships. The FWC Committee makes the final determination as to which will be awarded to which applicant. For example, in addition to a general scholarship, there is one special scholarship in engineering and another for a student who is majoring in a scientific field related, allied or of value to the medical field.

Every other year, the FWC also awards one scholarship to a full-time student who is the spouse of a member of the UCLA full-time faculty or administration. This scholarship may be available in 2017–18.

Also available is a scholarship for the direct descendant (child, step or adopted child, grandchild) of a UCLA full-time or retired full-time member of the UCLA faculty or administration.

Application Procedure

The following supplemental materials are required in addition to the ones listed at the start of the section on Privately Endowed Fellowships:

- An unofficial copy of your undergraduate transcript showing degree awarded
- An additional letter of recommendation (for a total of two). In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document. Repeat this process for the second recommender.
- The recommenders will not need to email anything to the department Student Affairs Officer.
- It will be the student’s responsibility to ensure that the letters have been submitted on time.
Doctoral Student Travel Grants for Conferences, Professional Development and Off-Campus Research (DTG)

This is a new program, effective with the 2016–17 fiscal year, that replaces the Research Travel Grant Pilot Program, the Conference and Travel Research Funds and, in most cases, the travel/research reimbursement from the Graduate Summer Research Mentorship, the Graduate Research Mentorship, and the Dissertation Year Fellowship.

Doctoral Student Travel Grants for Conferences, Professional Development and Off-Campus Research (DTG)

Effective Fall 2016 for eligible new entering doctoral students on all travel on or after 9/19/2016

Effective July 2016 for eligible continuing doctoral students on all travel on or after 7/1/2016

(Information subject to revision.)

Purpose

To encourage eligible doctoral students to present their work and network at conferences in their field, to support travel associated with off-campus research and to enable students to take advantage of off-campus professional development opportunities.

Deadlines

- Airfare & conference registration: Reimbursement can be provided in advance of the departure date or within 45 days after the travel has been completed.
- All other expenses: Reimbursement must be requested within a reasonable amount of time, not to exceed 45 days after travel has been completed.

Amount

$1,000 ($100 minimum for each reimbursement request)

Each eligible new and continuing doctoral student will be provided up to $1,000 total reimbursement that can be used, in whole or in part, at any time through the student’s seventh year in the doctoral program, as long as the student and the activities meet the eligibility requirements.

Students who were awarded the Dissertation Year Fellowship (DYF) in 2015–16 or earlier will not be eligible for this program. EXCEPTION: 2015–16 DYF awardees who activated their fellowship in Winter 2016 will be eligible as long as they are receiving DYF funding. Once the DYF funding has ended, the student is no longer eligible.
Eligibility

- Doctoral students with PhD, DEnv, DrPH and DMA degree objectives are eligible. Students enrolled in the Medicine MD, Dentistry DDS, and Law JD programs are not eligible. Students in self-supporting programs (e.g., EdD) are not eligible.

- US citizens, permanent residents, international or registered California AB540 students. For international students, funding is subject to fellowship eligibility in regards to visa type. For those under AB540, funding will be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship.

- Doctoral students may or may not be advanced to candidacy at the time of travel.

- Students must engage in the activity and seek reimbursement within seven years of entering the doctoral program. Students in their eighth doctoral year and beyond are not eligible for this funding.

- Student must not have any unresolved incompletes (I grades) on record at the time the travel took place.

- Student must have been registered/enrolled in a minimum of 12 units during the academic term in which the research/travel/professional activity took place and for which reimbursement is being requested. For summer travel, the student must have met this requirement in the previous Spring quarter and register/enroll in the subsequent fall. In absentia registration is acceptable.

- Students on Filing Fee are not eligible for reimbursement of expenses incurred while on Filing Fee. Students cannot request reimbursement for expenses incurred during an approved leave of absence, while lapsed (unapproved leave), or after withdrawing from the university.

- Student must complete the Graduate Division General Conditions for Student Travel and submit with the relevant application form available here.

Continuing students:

- Students who have already been awarded travel funds through the Cota-Robles2, the Graduate Summer Research Mentorship (GSRM), the Graduate Research Mentorship (GRM), the Research Travel Grant Program and/or the conference/travel research funding from their department that utilized Graduate Division funds will be eligible for the difference between $1,000 and the total of those travel awards. For example, Susie Bruin received $500 reimbursement from her GRM and $200 from her department’s Graduate Division travel awards. She may still receive $300 through this reimbursement program.

Allowable Expenses

Students must meet UCLA travel policies (www.travel.ucla.edu). Expenses may include:

- Airfare
- Transportation
- Lodging (at a commercial venue; no stays at someone’s home)
• Meals will be reimbursed on an actual basis, subject to the prevailing campus limit (currently $74) for each full day on travel status. The Graduate Division requires receipts. Flat rate (per diem) reimbursement is not possible.

<tr>
<td>Academic graduate students are strongly encouraged to seek funding from sources outside UCLA (“extramural” support) for one or more years of graduate study. Preparing fellowship and grant applications contributes to a student’s professional development and garnering an award represents a significant achievement. To encourage academic programs to support this activity and to amplify the impact of the award, the campus will partner with the program to cover the cost of education (tuition and fees) not covered by the award. The cost-sharing details are provided below.</td>

Award Description
The Graduate Division will provide 50% of the shortfall between the extramural award amount and UCLA's cost of education (COE), defined as the sum of tuition, student services fees, campus fees, and non-resident supplemental tuition (NRST). The 50% cost-sharing for NRST is provided for a maximum of three years. The student’s graduate program is required to contribute the other 50% of the COE, including NRST if applicable. The department is responsible for covering 100% of professional differential supplemental tuition (PDST) or non-resident professional differential supplemental tuition (NRPDST), as applicable. PDST/NRPDST costs and self-supporting degree program fees are not eligible for cost sharing.

If a student receives several extramural awards that provide overlapping tuition/fees, or that together provide more than the maximum allowable stipend at UCLA, the Graduate Division and the academic program will work together to ensure that the student receives up to the maximum amount of merit-based support.

Funding Partnership for Extramural Graduate Student Training Grants

Introduction

Academic departments and faculty are strongly encouraged to seek funding external to UCLA. Extramural funding is a great catalyst in opening up educational, research and training opportunities as well as expanding funding streams. Garnering such support also brings increased reputational prestige. To encourage departments/faculty and to bolster the impact of such funding, the Graduate Division offers Matching Funds in support of training programs that have funding associated with Pre-Doctoral Graduate Students under the graduate student support category (stipends and/or fees/tuition).

Financial Aid

The University of California recognizes that the cost of a university education may present a financial challenge to many graduate students. Therefore, students who require assistance in meeting education costs should apply for aid based on their financial need. The Financial Aid and Scholarships office is responsible for administering work-study and loans for graduate students. Financial Aid and Scholarships is located in A-129J Murphy Hall. Additional information is available at www.financialaid.ucla.edu.

Application Procedure

Applying for financial aid (Federal Direct Loans, Perkins and Federal Work-Study) is a separate procedure from applying for the other support described in this booklet. UCLA requires all students to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Students should submit the FAFSA by March 2 to ensure maximum funding consideration. To complete a FAFSA, visit www.fafsa.ed.gov. Continuing applicants can use their FSA ID to access their renewal FAFSA (this has changed from the FAFSA PIN used in previous years). If you do not have an FSA ID, you will be prompted to create one when you start your FAFSA for the upcoming academic year.

Students are encouraged to review the Financial Aid Handbook (usually available in January), available on the FAS website: www.financialaid.ucla.edu (search for “Financial Aid Handbook”). International students who hold F-1 student visas or other temporary visas are not eligible to apply for financial aid at UCLA. They are urged, therefore, to make every effort to secure funds from other sources.

UCLA adheres to a need-analysis system enacted by the U.S. Congress to determine how much a family should be expected to provide toward educational costs. This expected contribution is subtracted from the estimated cost of education to determine a student’s “financial need.” Work-study is available for students who demonstrate need. Federal Direct Loans are available to all graduate students irrespective of need. Students who receive fellowships, scholarships, sponsorships or other outside aid will have their financial aid packages adjusted and/or replaced by these latter awards. Students are strongly advised to consult Financial Aid and Scholarships should such an action occur.

Student expense budgets, which set the limits for the costs that financial aid will cover, provide students with a modest but realistic standard of living. Housing costs in the area adjacent to the University are high; it is assumed that single students living off campus will share apartments. Budgets are reviewed and updated each year to reflect changes in the cost of living. Average allowable cost for graduate students living in an off-campus apartment for the 2016–2017 academic year is $37,622. This figure includes the cost of tuition, health insurance, books and supplies, room and board, travel and personal expenses. An additional $15,102 in tuition is charged for all nonresident students, increasing student’s total annual cost to $52,724. For a full breakdown of graduate costs, please see www.financialaid.ucla.edu/Graduate/Cost-of-Attendance.
Students who have submitted their FAFSA will subsequently receive an electronic Financial Aid Notification (FAN) detailing their financial need and offer of financial aid. Notifications are posted on MyUCLA (www.my.ucla.edu) in the summer before the start of their academic year.

William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan Program (DLP)

Students who are eligible for Direct Loan Program, which includes Direct Unsubsidized and Graduate PLUS Loans are notified of their eligibility via a Financial Aid Notification (FAN) on MyUCLA. These low-interest, long-term loans are funded by the U. S. Department of Education. Applications and disbursements are processed electronically. A Graduate Loan Guide is included with the FAN and should be reviewed carefully before a student decides to borrow federal loans.

First-time borrowers must complete a Master Promissory Note with the U.S. Department of Education at www.StudentLoans.gov and must complete a Debt Management Session with Student Loan Services at www.loans.ucla.edu before their loans can be disbursed.

Financial Aid Disbursements

Financial Aid and Scholarships will verify enrollment status before disbursing financial aid to your BruinBill account. You must be enrolled or wait listed at least half-time (4 units) in order to receive aid. Disbursements start 10 days before the first day of instruction each quarter.

Refunds (any funds left over in BruinBill account after the quarter’s tuition and fees are paid) are released to students’ bank accounts via electronic funds transfer (EFT), if the borrower is signed up for Bruin Direct. You can sign up for Bruin Direct on MyUCLA. Refund checks are mailed to students who are not signed up for Bruin Direct.

Graduate Work-Study Program (GWSP) (pending funding availability)

Provides federal work-study grants to “financially need eligible” U.S. citizen and permanent resident graduate students to complete on- or off-campus part-time paid internships, community service, research projects or other endeavors closely related to their academic degree program. Graduate students working on a research project in their discipline qualify for funding. Students are encouraged to seek out positions and apply for Graduate Work-Study Program funding as early as possible. A 2017–2018 FAFSA must be submitted by March 2, 2017 in order to be considered. For more information, contact the Fellowships & Financial Services Office, 1228 Murphy Hall, (310) 825-1025, https://grad.ucla.edu/funding/financial-aid/graduate-work-study-program/.

About Graduate Division Funding

The Graduate Division makes various resources available for the support of graduate students.

Departmental allocations permit chairs and professional school deans to designate recipients of these funds. Students are nominated through the Departmental Allocation Recommendations form, which initiates an official graduate Division offer sent directly to the nominated student.

Other Graduate Division funds are allocated through campus-wide competitions. In these cases, departments, interdepartmental programs and schools nominate students. Central committees select award recipients, and the Graduate Division distributes offers to the selected students. Graduate programs can view fellowship applications and nominate entering students who applied for admissions online using the Graduate Division Intranet.

Most Graduate Division funding is not automatically renewable; students must apply yearly.

Once a student is named for either allocated or campus-wide resources, the selection is official and cannot be revoked without the student’s written approval.

For students who apply for need-based financial aid, Financial Aid & Scholarships Office policy stipulates that receipt of merit-based awards may cause a reduction in the aid they receive based on their financial need.

Students should be advised that any financial information they provide will be kept confidential and their responses do not affect the amount of merit-based support they receive.

Concurrent Awards/Fellowships

Recipients offered other awards (e.g., from extramural agencies or department allocations) in addition to the offer of Graduate Division-administered fellowships may, at the Graduate Division’s or department’s discretion, be required to relinquish all or part of the Graduate Division-administered award. In most cases, a student may not hold multiple academic-year stipends from the Graduate Division or from the Graduate Division and another source that total more than a specified amount. For example, in 2016–17, the total stipend for a single person living off campus is $48,543.25 for the fiscal year (July through June). Also, a student may not receive a combination of tuition/fee awards that total more than the cost of tuition/fees. In such cases, one or more tuition/fee awards will be canceled and not converted to stipends. For more information, see https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/maxsupport.htm.

Notification and Acceptance of Awards

Students are notified as soon as award decisions are made, from Spring through early Fall. Notification of a teaching assistantship, graduate student researcher appointment or departmental fellowship is sent directly by the department.

As a member of the Council of Graduate Schools (CGS) in the United States, UCLA subscribes to the following CGS resolution regarding acceptance of graduate scholarships, fellowships, traineeships and assistantships:

“Acceptance of an offer of financial aid (such as a graduate scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, or assistantship) for the next academic year by an actual or prospective graduate student completes an agreement which both student and graduate school expect to honor. In those instances in which the student accepts the offer before April 15 and subsequently desires to withdraw, the student may submit in writing a resignation of the appointment at any time through April 15. However, an acceptance given or left in force after April 15 commits the student not to accept another offer without first obtaining a written release from the institution to which a commitment has been made. Similarly, an offer by an institution after April 15 is conditional on presentation by the student of the written release from any previously accepted offer. It is further agreed by the institutions and organizations subscribing to the above resolution that a copy of this resolution should accompany every scholarship, fellowship, traineeship, and assistantship offer.”

Required Supporting Documentation

- For some Privately Endowed fellowships (see eligibility criteria https://grad.ucla.edu/asis/stusup/contspprt.pdf)
  - U.S. citizens and permanent residents only must complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at the following website: www.fafsa.ed.gov.
  - Non U.S. citizens or permanent residents but who qualify for nonresident tuition waiver under AB540 must complete the California DREAM application: https://dream.csac.ca.gov. For additional information, visit the Financial Aid and Scholarships website: www.financialaid.ucla.edu/Graduate/Applying-for-Aid#10499438-dream-act-application.
  - International students must complete the Financial Statement at the following website: https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/taxintro.htm.
• International students should be instructed to apply for Social Security Number (SSN) or Individual Tax Identification Number (ITIN) immediately upon arrival under their student visa and should notify the Registrar’s Office of the actual number. For information on how to apply, please visit the following:
  • Social Security Number - www.internationalcenter.ucla.edu/home/handbook/181/211/ssn
  • Individual Tax Identification Number - www.internationalcenter.ucla.edu/home/F1Visa/71/140/itin

• All new students who are permanent residents who have not completed a FAFSA and are not employed by UCLA must complete a W-9 Form.

• All other international students must enter their information on the GLACIER Nonresident Alien Tax Compliance System (www.online-tax.net) if requested/required. To obtain access, the department must request to set up an initial GLACIER record at www.payroll.ucla.edu/forms/initial-glacier-entry-form.htm. Access can only be granted 30 days prior to arrival in the U.S.

Departments can verify if forms have been completed by checking FAM screen 306 under the “Current Status” column. There should be a “C” for the following mnemonics:

GD-W9 - for permanent residents
GDTSR – for all international students
FAFSA – for US citizens and permanent residents
GDFIN – for international students receiving Graduate Division privately endowed fellowships that are need based only

Stipend awards are not released to non-U.S. citizens without the required completed forms.

Remission Restrictions

If a student is awarded tuition from either unrestricted fellowship funds or Graduate Division Endowed Fellowship awards, and is later appointed under a remissions-eligible title code (TA, GSR, Reader, Special Reader or Tutor), the hiring department will become responsible for paying remissions. Any unrestricted or Graduate Division Special Fellowship or Endowed Fellowship tuition awards will be adjusted, and funding will revert back to the Graduate Division after the February deadline.

In the case of GSRs who qualify for nonresident supplemental tuition (i.e., appointed as a GSR for 45% cumulative time and enrolled in 12 units), the hiring department is responsible for paying the nonresident supplemental tuition remission. In those cases where an eligible GSR was already receiving a nonresident supplemental tuition award from Graduate Division resources (i.e., either departmental allocation funds or an endowed fellowship award), the nonresident supplemental tuition award will be cancelled and those funds returned to the Graduate Division. Policy requires that nonresident supplemental tuition be paid by the same funding source that is paying the GSR salary, except in those cases where the salary derives from state funding sources (e.g., 19900). Neither Graduate Division allocation resources nor endowed fellowship awards can be used to pay the nonresident supplemental tuition for GSRs. No central augmentation will be available to fund nonresident supplemental tuition for GSRs supported by 19900 funding. The hiring department is responsible for identifying an appropriate non-state fund to which the remissions may be charged. For more information on nonresident supplemental tuition policy, please see the Academic Apprentice Personnel (AAP) Manual (https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/aapmanual.pdf).

In the event a department hires a graduate student who does not meet the minimum criteria to be appointed under any of the academic apprentice personnel titles covered in the AAP manual, and an exception is approved, the hiring department will be responsible for covering the cost of remission benefits from non-19900 or 19914 fund sources. NO appropriation will be made at fiscal-year end.

Fellowship Requirements

Students receiving Graduate Division Fellowship awards (e.g., Graduate Research Mentorship, any of the Privately Endowed Fellowships, Dissertation Year Fellowship, etc.) are required to be continuously registered/enrolled in a minimum of 12 units per term for the duration of their fellowship. They must also maintain satisfactory progress in their degree program as determined by their home department/program and with a cumulative 3.0 GPA (2.5 for Law students).

If a student withdraws, takes a Leave of Absence and/or is not continuously enrolled for the applicable funding term, the student must repay any aid advanced for which the student is no longer eligible.

Students funded during the summer must have been continuously registered/enrolled during the previous Spring Term and must be continuously registered/enrolled during the following Fall. If not continuously registered/enrolled, the summer award will be cancelled and will need to be repaid. The students also must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA (2.5 for Law students) at time of award (i.e., at the time of payment disbursement).

Please note that students in self-supporting, special fee programs are not eligible to apply for any Graduate Division fellowships. These include the following:

- Architecture – MArch II SUPRASTUDIO
- Economics – Master of Applied Economics
- Education Leadership Program (EdD)
- Engineering Online Master’s Programs (all)
- Management – Executive MBA (EMBA)
- Management – Full-time MBA
- Management – Fully Employed MBA (FEMBA)
- Management – Global Executive MBA for Asia Pacific
- Management – Master’s of Financial Engineering
- Public Health – Executive Master’s of Public Health
Public Health – Master’s of Public Health for Health Professionals
School of Law – LLM Program
Social Science – Master of Social Science
Statistics – Master of Social Science

All Graduate Division fellowship recipients may work up to 25% time during the fellowship award period. [An individual who is a UC employee prior to becoming a graduate student is exempt from the maximum appointment percentage.] Note that 100% time is 40 hours per week (includes Apprentice Academic Personnel, staff titles, and UNEX). Employment over 25% time requires an approved exception. All exception requests for student employment must be submitted to the Graduate Division at least three weeks prior to the beginning of the term. Exceptions for GPA requirement must be submitted by the end of the first week of the term.

IMPORTANT: Some extramural fellowship agencies require awardees to obtain preapproval from the agency before the work can be approved, even at 25%. Check with Fellowships & Financial Services for details: uclafellowship@grad.ucla.edu or 310-825-1025.

Working as an Academic Apprentice (e.g., Graduate Student Researcher, Special Reader, Teaching Assistant) at a minimum of 25% time qualifies the student for tuition/fee remissions (https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/feeremission.pdf). The Academic Apprentice appointment, and not the Graduate Division fellowship, will pay most of the tuition/fees, with the balance covered by the Graduate Division fellowship. The amount that would have been covered by the Graduate Division fellowship cannot be converted to a stipend nor deferred to another term.

The table below describes the maximum percentage of time a fellowship awardee may work per term.

Publicizing Fellowship Awardees

The name and home department of fellowship awardees may be published on the Graduate Division’s website, in its publications and/or posted on its bulletin boards and other Graduate Division venues for educational purposes. Awardees who do not want their information published must submit a statement to this effect when returning the fellowship contract.

Reduced Nonresident Supplemental Tuition

PhD candidates who are nonresidents for tuition purposes and who have formally advanced to doctoral candidacy are eligible for a 100% reduction of their nonresident supplemental tuition. Eligibility for the reduced nonresident supplemental tuition begins with the first academic term following advancement to doctoral candidacy and is limited to nine consecutive academic terms (Leaves of Absence and In-Absentia are counted). A registered PhD or professional doctoral student who meets all of the following criteria is eligible for reduced nonresident supplemental tuition:

- Is classified as a nonresident for tuition purposes;
- Is registered in a doctoral program or professional doctorate program that has an advancement-to-candidacy requirement; and
- Has been approved by the Graduate Division to be advanced to doctoral candidacy by the day before the start of the applicable quarter for which the reduced supplemental tuition is assessed.

If a student is still enrolled and registered beyond the three years, per University of California policy the NRST will be reinstated as of the tenth quarter. If the student is receiving a Graduate Division-administered fellowship at the time the NRST is reinstated, the stipend portion of the fellowship will be applied toward the NRST unless there’s another NRST-payment source on record.

If you have questions regarding nonresident supplemental tuition, please contact your assigned representative in the Graduate Fellowships and Financial Services Office at x51025 or gdsupport@grad.ucla.edu.

Maximum Limit of Merit-Based Support

The Graduate Council has established a policy of Maximum Limit on the total amount of support a graduate student may receive. It includes any fellowships, stipends, and TA/RA earnings. The maximum limit will vary for each student. Please see: https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/maxsupport.htm.
To calculate the maximum limit of support that a student may receive, use the following formula:

Need-based stipend is the estimated budget for living expenses established by the Financial Aid & Scholarships Office and published annually at www.financialaid.ucla.edu/Graduate/Cost-of-Attendance. The limits are generous. If an exception to the Maximum Limit is required, the student’s home academic department must submit an exception.

If you have questions regarding the maximum limit of merit-based support, please contact your assigned representative in the Graduate Fellowships and Financial Services Office at x51025 or email at gdsupport@grad.ucla.edu.

Departmental Allocations

Departmental allocations are resources allocated to departments, interdepartmental programs and schools by the Graduate Division that permit chairs and professional school deans to designate recipients of these funds. Students are nominated through the Departmental Allocation Recommendations form, which initiates an official Graduate Division offer sent directly to the nominated student. Once a student is named for either allocated or campus-wide resources, the selection is official and cannot be revoked without the student’s written approval.

Students funded during the summer must have been continuously registered/enrolled during the previous Spring Term and must be continuously registered/enrolled during the following Fall. If not continuously registered/enrolled, the summer award will be cancelled and will need to be repaid (prior-year DYF recipients are no longer eligible to be nominated for these funds).

Purpose  The Graduate Division encourages departments to utilize unrestricted funds to provide competitive financial packages to the most highly recruited and/or promising graduate students.

Offers for the most highly recruited and/or promising students are typically multi-year. In making offers to outstanding applicants, we recommend you leverage your allocation resources in combination with student-based employment and other support resources to provide packages over multiple years.

Formula  The allocation method has been revised starting with the 2016–17 cycle.

Revised degree weightings. Under the new method, all professional and academic master’s degree programs are treated equally; the JD is treated like a master’s degree.

Revised eligible enrollment. To dampen year-to-year fluctuations, the block allocations are based on the average eligible enrollment in the three previous years rather than just the preceding year. The Graduate Division’s proposed allocations to programs within a division or school will continue to be based on the eligible enrollment, but the eligibility rules have been simplified.

Doctoral degrees: Under the new method, all doctoral students will be eligible for block grant funds for up to 21 consecutive quarters (7 years; summers are not counted), irrespective of when the students advance to candidacy. It remains an expectation that students should advance to candidacy no later than the end of their 4th year of graduate study and earlier advancement should be encouraged.

Master’s degrees: Under the new method, registered master’s and JD students who are within their program’s normative time-to-degree (measured in quarters/semesters) will contribute to their program’s eligible enrollment count. (Note: Programs should not increase their faculty-approved normative time-to-degree to boost their block allocation.)

As a reminder, students who are registered in absentia count toward a program’s eligible enrollment. However, students who are on Filing Fee do not count.

New minimum and maximum funding levels for per capita allocations. The new allocation method introduces minimum and maximum funding levels for each master’s and doctoral degree student, as shown in the table below. Programs that were receiving more than $2,700/quarter ($8,100/year) for each do doctoral student or more than $1,900/quarter ($5,700/year) for each master’s degree student have had their per-student allocations reduced to these maximum levels. Schools/divisions that were receiving less than the minimum levels of per-student support have had their allocations increased to bring the average support up to the minimum levels.

<td>$2,700</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Note that the minima and maxima will impact the size of the block grant allocations the Graduate Division will propose for each program, but deans will be able to adjust allocations across programs under their purview. Programs may award higher or lower amounts to individual students; they are not required to make minimum awards.

Amount

Unrestricted Fellowship funds must be awarded as part of a package of UCLA merit-based support.

The package may include:

- Teaching and Research assistantships
- Departmental fellowships
- Traineeships

Nonresident supplemental tuition and tuition can be offered for one, two or all three quarters. Nonresident supplemental tuition awards must cover the entire amount of each quarter offered if Unrestricted Fellowship funds are used.

Partial nonresident supplemental tuition quarterly awards are not allowed.

Nomination Procedures

To use Unrestricted Fellowship funds to provide a student’s tuition, nonresident supplemental tuition and/or stipend, indicate whether each award is new or revised and enter the amount(s) to be offered in the appropriate spaces. Reminder: Tuition and Nonresident Supplemental Tuition amounts are tentative and may change at any time. A student must decline an award in writing before the Graduate Division can release the funds to be re-offered to another student. If an election is made to reduce or cancel Unrestricted Fellowship funds without the student’s consent, the department must provide equal funding to the student from another source. Please refer to the “About Graduate Division Funding” section for information regarding required supporting documentation.

Declinations and Revisions

- To re-offer declined Unrestricted Fellowship funds to a student who has not been recommended before for such funding, complete a recommendation form indicating that the award is new.
- To re-offer declined Unrestricted Fellowship funds to a student who has been recommended previously for such funding, complete a recommendation form indicating that the award is revised. This recommendation will completely replace the earlier recommendation. Thus, the revised award must include all award amounts.
- Reports are available online which identify the nominees and the status of each award recommendation. Allocation balances are also available for viewing online. Please contact Graduate Fellowships & Financial Services on how to access these reports.

Note: Once a student is named for either allocated or campus-wide resources, the selection is official and cannot be revoked without the student’s written approval.

How the Student Receives the Award

The Fellowships & Financial Services Office sends an Offer of Graduate Student Support and Instructions for Responding to each student recommended for Unrestricted Fellowship funds. After accepting or declining the award and signing the offer, the student returns the original to the Graduate Fellowships & Financial Services Office. Students have 30 days from the date of the offer to activate/accept. After 30 days, the offer is subject to revocation by the Graduate Division.

Tuition and/or nonresident supplemental tuition payments are disbursed via “credit” to the student’s BruinBill account. Though student tuition and nonresident supplemental tuition awards are disbursed automatically, students are responsible for monitoring their BruinBill accounts through MyUCLA to confirm that tuition and nonresident supplemental tuition are paid each term.

Unrestricted Fellowship stipends are paid on a term-by-term or monthly basis. All tuition and nonresident supplemental tuition charges will be paid first along with any outstanding university charges if the system does not identify applicable payments. A check or electronic deposit for the stipend balance, if any, will be issued. Designated tuition, health insurance and nonresident supplemental tuition awards can only apply against such assessments. Should a credit exist for these categories, a payment will not be issued back to the student.

All recipients of fellowship and traineeship awards should register for Bruin Direct to have their stipends deposited directly into their designated US bank account. Recipients who do not sign up will have their payment mailed to the US-based mailing address of record and experience a delay in receiving their funding.

Recruitment Visit Funds

Deadline May 10, 2017

Travel Period: January 1 through April 15, 2017

Purpose Funding established for recruitment is intended to help enhance the success of departments in convincing the most talented and academically promising students in their applicant pool to enroll at UCLA. Resources available from the Graduate Division are reserved exclusively for the cost of travel to help support campus visits by the most highly recruited students.

Amount No limitations for in-state or out-of-state.

Supplemental Cota-Robles and GOFP Funding In addition to the allocated recruitment visit funds, the department will be eligible for a supplement for each Cota-Robles and GOFP awardee:

- $250 for in-state
• $500 for out-of-state
• Funds are for the exclusive use of Cota-Robles and GOFP awardees.
• This supplementation cannot be used to cover travel expenses incurred by other graduate students.

Departmental Reimbursement

Departments should submit a Recruitment Visit Reimbursement Form (https://go.grad.ucla.edu/internal/pdf/funding_recruitreceipt.pdf) along with legible photocopies of all receipts to the Graduate Division Fellowships & Financial Services Office no later than May 10. Original receipts are not required; however, valid proof of payment is required and the name of the student must be shown on the receipt. Valid proof includes PAC travel transactions, ASAP notices, and/or relevant receipts to substantiate visit expenses. Copy of flight itinerary and/or lodging detail must be included with proof of payment.

The Graduate Division will transfer approved amounts to departments once relevant copies of receipts and/or PAC travel transactions (with flight itinerary/lodging folio copy) have been received and reconciled.

Allowable Expenses

Reimbursement will be only for travel that is tied directly to visiting UCLA. Those showing travel to other destinations will be excluded from consideration.

Allowable expenses (with receipts):

• Transportation - Airfare, car rental, cab, shuttle, bus, train, or mileage reimbursement for personal car use.

  o The university pays $.54 per mile for personal car mileage reimbursement. Please provide mileage calculation documentation (Yahoo, MapQuest, Google Maps, etc.). The amount claimed cannot exceed the cost of airfare to the travel destination. Student must be driver of vehicle. | Eligibility | • Open to all students.
|            | • Only travel occurring during the period of January 1–April 15, 2017 will be considered for funding. |

| FAQs | 1. Does the Graduate Division accept photocopies of receipts? |
|      | Yes, please submit photocopies. Departments should retain originals. |
|      | 2. May I submit a reimbursement request for a prospective student who attended a department recruitment event but was not admitted to the program? |
|      | Yes. |
|      | 3. A prospective student has multi-destination air travel to visit another university before coming to UCLA. What amount can be reimbursed? |
|      | The cost should be split between the two universities, or up to one half of the roundtrip multi-destination airfare. If the student is not getting reimbursement from the other University then a breakdown of charges must be submitted for each leg of the trip so that the leg of trip to and from UCLA is covered. |
|      | 4. A prospective student is studying outside of the United States, and we would like to reimburse airfare for the student to attend a department recruitment event. What amount can be reimbursed? |
|      | The student may purchase air travel from their foreign school directly to California (for UCLA campus visit). The department can cover partial or full airfare. There is no longer a restriction on foreign travel reimbursement requests. |
|      | 5. Will the Graduate Division cover ticket exchanges? |
|      | The original itinerary showing form of payment must be submitted along with the itinerary showing the ticket exchange value. A brief reason for ticket exchange should be written on the receipt/itinerary. |
|      | 6. Does the Graduate Division cover UCLA Travel service fees? |
|      | Yes, UCLA Travel office service fees may be included in the requested reimbursement amount. It is recommended that the department print a copy of the ‘e-invoice’ from UCLA Travel website (this shows more detail than the itinerary option). |
7. What if the travel itinerary or lodging folio shows total cost but not the form of payment (or zero balance)?

If the itinerary or hotel folio does not show payment information, then attach a copy of the bank or credit card statement showing the charge.

8. The department covered lodging under one transaction for several students. What form of documentation is acceptable?

The hotel folio must itemize the student names and associated one-day lodging details (date of stay, room rate/tax, and form of payment or zero balance). If the folio is missing the form of payment or zero balance, then attach a copy of transaction showing a processed departmental recharge or documentation showing that a payment was made to the vendor.

9. I have not received all receipts from my students. Can I submit a reimbursement form and receipts for those I’ve collected?

No, only one reimbursement form may be submitted after all receipts have been collected. All students should be listed on one form.

10. My department did not receive an allocation for Recruitment Visit Funds. Can we submit travel reimbursement requests for our Cota-Robles or GOFP awardees?

Yes, the department is eligible to request $250 for in-state students and $500 for out-of-state students (with valid expenses). Funds are for the exclusive use of Cota-Robles and GOFP awardees. Funding cannot be used to cover travel expenses incurred by other students.

11. Our department nominated a student for the Cota-Robles/GOFP award, but he/she did not receive the award. Can we request supplemental recruitment funding for this student?

No, the student is not eligible to be covered under supplemental recruitment visit funding because they were only nominated by the department but not awarded the fellowship. Supplemental Cota-Robles/GOFP recruitment visit funding is only for awardees (not for nominees who are not fellowship recipients). The department would need to use their allocated recruitment visit funds (base allocation) or a departmental fund source if they wish to cover expenses for a nominee not awarded the Cota-Robles/GOFP fellowship.

12. If a prospective student is a California resident but is traveling from an out-of-state school (where they are attending undergrad or graduate study) is this considered in-state or out-of-state travel?

This is considered out-of-state travel.
13. What is the difference between Base Allocation Total and Cota-Robles/GOFP Total on the Reimbursement Form?

Base Allocation is the amount that was allocated to your department (this is the amount listed on Jasmine for Recruitment Visit Funds). “Base Allocation Total” is the sum of requested amounts for students covered from Allocated Recruitment Visit Funds (non-Cota-Robles/GOFP supplement). “Cota-Robles/GOFP Total” is the sum of the requested Cota-Robles/GOFP supplement funding (for students who are Cota-Robles/GOFP awardees). Cota-Robles/GOFP awardees may receive base allocation funds in addition to Cota-Robles/GOFP funding (e.g., Jessica Smith is an in-state GOFP awardee, so the department receives $250 supplemental funding for that student’s expenses. If Jessica’s expenses exceeded $250, then the department may choose to reimburse the student from the base allocation funds as well.)

14. Is there a maximum limit of recruitment visit funding that the department can request?

Yes. Recruitment Visit reimbursement requests cannot exceed the total of Allocated Recruitment Visit Funds and/or supplemental Cota-Robles/GOFP recruitment funds. See “Student Support Allocations” under the Dean’s Office menu on Jasmine to view Allocated Recruitment Visit Funds. Supplemental Cota-Robles and GOFP recruitment funds are not listed on jasmine “Student Support Allocations.” Supplemental funds are determined as awardees are announced. If a department is allocated $1,500 and does not have Cota-Robles/GOFP expenses then the total recruitment visit funds that can be requested are $1,500. If the department is allocated $1,500 and has $700 valid expenses to report for Cota-Robles/GOFP awardees then the total recruitment visit funds that can be requested is $2,200.

15. Can I submit the reimbursement requests via email? Do I need to submit one receipt form per student reimbursement request?

No. The complete packet should be mailed or delivered to Fellowships and Financial Services (do not email). The department must submit only one Recruitment Visit Reimbursement Form after all student receipts have been collected.

16. How does the student receive the reimbursement funding?

The department collects all receipts and submits copies along with the reimbursement form to the Graduate Division. Graduate Division reviews receipts for valid expenses and transfers funds to the department. The department in turn reimburses the student via Travel Express.

17. What if the department has already reimbursed the student from a different fund source (not under 07427 fund)?

This is okay. The department should process a Non-Payroll Expenditure...
Adjustment Request (NPEAR) prior to fiscal close to move the recruitment visit expense from the non-07427 fund to the FAU which the Graduate Division will transfer funds (07427 fund only). The funding that the Graduate Division transfers to the department for Recruitment Visits must be utilized only to cover recruitment visit expenses (as the department recorded on the Recruitment Visit Reimbursement form). Recruitment Visit Funds must not be carried over to another fiscal year to be used for other expenses. Recruitment Visit Funds must not be utilized to cover expenses not reported on the Recruitment Visit Reimbursement Form.

Four complexes are located in the Palms–Mar Vista area, approximately five miles south of UCLA: Keystone/Mentone Apartments, Rose Avenue Apartments, University Village Apartments, and Venice Barry Apartments. More information is available at https://housing.ucla.edu.
Campuswide Programs

Departments, interdepartmental programs and schools nominate students for these awards. Central committees select award recipients, and the Graduate Division distributes offers to the selected students.

Graduate programs can view fellowship applications and nominate students online using Go.Grad or the Graduate Division Intranet, Jasmine, depending on the fellowship.

Students receiving Graduate Division Fellowship awards (e.g., Graduate Dean’s Scholar Award, Eugene Cota-Robles, Graduate Opportunity Fellowship, Graduate Research Mentorship, any of the Privately Endowed Fellowships, Dissertation Year Fellowship, etc.) are required to be enrolled in a minimum of 12 units per term for the entire term while they are receiving fellowship funding. They must also maintain satisfactory progress in their degree program with a cumulative 3.0 GPA (2.5 for Law students). If they withdraw or take a Leave of Absence, their award is subject to cancellation for the quarter(s) or semester(s) in which they are not enrolled. Students registered as in-absentia may keep their funding while on in-absentia status.

Students funded during the summer must have been registered/enrolled during the previous Spring Term and must be registered/enrolled during the following Fall. If not registered/enrolled, the summer award will be cancelled and will need to be repaid. The students also must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA at time of award (i.e., at the time of payment disbursement).

Working as an Academic Apprentice (e.g., Graduate Student Researcher, Special Reader, Teaching Assistant) at a minimum of 25% time qualifies the student for tuition/fee remissions (https://grad.ucla.edu/gss/appm/feeremission.pdf). The Academic Apprentice appointment, and not the Graduate Division fellowship, will pay most of the tuition/fees, with the balance covered by the Graduate Division fellowship. The amount that would have been covered by the Graduate Division fellowship cannot be converted to a stipend.

Please note that students in the following self-supporting, special fee programs are not eligible to apply for any Graduate Division fellowships:

- Architecture – MArch II SUPRASTUDIO
- Economics – Master of Applied Economics
- Education Leadership Program (EdD)
- Engineering Online Master’s Program
- Management – Executive MBA (EMBA)
- Management – Full-time MBA
- Management – Fully Employed MBA (FEMBA)
- Management – Global Executive MBA for Asia Pacific
- Management – Master’s of Financial Engineering
- Public Health – Executive Master’s of Public Health
- Public Health – Master’s of Public Health for Health Professionals
- School of Law – LLM Program
NOTE: Change(s) Effective with the 2017–18 Cycle

- The Karekin Der Avedisian Memorial Endowment Fund is no longer being administered by the Graduate Division. The funding is now housed in the department of Near Eastern Languages & Cultures.
- The Steven J. Sackler Scholarship is no longer offered for graduate students.

Graduate Student Financial Support

Childbirth Accommodation Funding

Purpose
The UCLA Childbirth Accommodation Fund was established to provide expectant mothers who work as GSRs, or who hold extramural fellowships that do not fund maternity leave, with paid leave for up to six weeks. A student may choose to continue to work in some modified capacity during these six weeks but is not required to do so. A longer period of leave may be granted, without pay, in the case of exceptional medical circumstances experienced by the mother or child before or after birth.

Six weeks of maternity leave funding is automatically granted for expectant mothers holding UCLA Fellowships, Graduate Division Endowed Fellowships, or fellowships offered by academic departments and centers at UCLA.

Eligibility
- You must be currently enrolled in an academic master’s or doctoral degree program. Students in professional programs are not eligible.
- During the time of requested funding, you must be employed as a GSR for at least ten hours per week OR be an extramural fellowship recipient. Students appointed as Readers, Special Readers or Tutors, which are hourly positions, are not eligible.
- Spouses, partners and adoptive parents are not eligible.
- GSRs are eligible to be paid for up to 50% time (20 hours per week).
- You may apply for Childbirth Accommodation Funding for multiple fellowships concurrently. If you have a GSR appointment AND extramural fellowships, you may apply for funding for all of them.

Application Procedures
- If you are a GSR, notify your department about your anticipated leave as soon as possible. The Petition for Childbirth Accommodation Funding is due at least 30 days in advance of the leave, except in circumstances where the leave is unanticipated.
- Fill out the student section of the Petition for Childbirth Accommodation

For example, the applicants should discuss:

- If they engaged in service efforts or programs to increase participation in science, education, humanities, fine arts or social sciences by groups historically underrepresented in higher education;

- If they have the potential to contribute to their graduate program through their understanding of the barriers facing women, domestic minorities, students with disabilities and other members of groups underrepresented in higher education careers, as evidenced by their life experiences and educational background;

- If they display drive and motivation to persist and succeed in their careers in spite of barriers in higher education that disproportionately disadvantage them;

- If they have the potential to bring to their research the creative critical discourse that comes from their non-traditional educational background or from their understanding of the experiences of individuals from groups underrepresented in higher education;

- If, in addition to their primary field of interest, they have the potential to make research contributions to understanding the barriers facing women and domestic minorities in science and other academic disciplines;

- If they have research interests in subjects that will contribute to diversity and equal opportunity in higher education.

Standards and Nomination Procedures

Schools, departments and interdepartmental programs offering doctoral degrees are eligible to nominate their admitted highly recruited entering doctoral students and may nominate another student if nominee declines the award and the deadline has not yet passed. We will not exceed the maximum number of Cota-Robles awardees your department/program has stated that it can support in the coming academic year.

Multiple nominations will be accepted, but all nominees must be officially admitted by the Graduate Division. To prioritize Graduate Division’s Admissions office review of your fellowship nominee, be sure to flag the person as a fellowship nominee. Otherwise, the Admissions office reviews files on a first-in, first-out basis.
When nominating, please be sure nominees understand that they are giving their consent to disclose application information to University officials and to relevant funding committees.

Students must complete all of the following:

- Fellowship application form
- Diversity Statement
- CV/Resume
- Statement of Purpose

Please nominate students using the “Fellowships Nomination” application on go.grad.ucla.edu. You will still need to:

- Specify the total number of Cota-Robles awardees your department/program can fund for this cycle.
- Provide a brief statement from your department/admissions chair articulating how nominee furthers diversity mission of the University and of your department/program. Statement should be on UCLA letterhead and must include Department/Admission Chair’s signature.
- If you see that a document that should be in landscape position is in portrait position, please rotate it before you upload it.

The Graduate Division must review each nomination and will inform departments and programs in a timely manner whether the student is or is not offered the fellowship.

Employment

First-year Cota-Robles recipients are not permitted to work during Fall quarter. In Winter and Spring, students may work up to 25% time without an exception under academic apprentice personnel titles. With an exception, students may work up to 50% time in Winter and Spring quarters provided the appointment is a Graduate Student Researcher (GSR) only or a combined GSR/Academic Student Employee (ASE) appointment up to and including 50%. 50% ASE appointments will not be approved.

Requests for employment above 25% time in Winter or Spring terms must be submitted three weeks before the start of the corresponding term.

Purpose

The Graduate Opportunity Fellowship Program supports a limited number of entering students pursuing either terminal (i.e., MA/MS degree in a program/department that does not offer the doctorate) or professional (e.g., MEd, MSW, MFA, MPH, MPP) master's degrees. Those applying for the JD are also eligible. Students pursuing MD or DDS degrees are not eligible.

The Graduate Opportunity Fellowship is designed to foster graduate study by facilitating the academic career development of students who have experienced educational disadvantage thus far in their schooling or from groups whose participation in academic careers consistently has been low.

Amount

The fellowship consists of a $20,000 stipend plus standard tuition and fees and, when necessary, nonresident supplemental tuition. If your program charges professional supplemental tuition, that cost is not covered by this fellowship.

Eligibility

All nominees must have a minimum 3.0 GPA (2.5 for Law School nominees)

- U.S. citizens, permanent residents or registered California AB540 students. Funding will be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship.

Standards and Nomination Procedures

The fellowship provides support for students in terminal master’s degree programs during their first year of graduate study. Schools, departments and interdepartmental programs nominate candidates on the basis of the students’ merit.

All nominees must be officially admitted by the Graduate Division. To prioritize Graduate Division’s Admissions office review of your fellowship nominee, be sure to flag the person as a fellowship nominee. Otherwise, the Admissions office reviews files on a first-in, first-out basis. Departments should select students who will contribute to the diversity of the graduate student body and the academic profession.

When nominating, please be sure nominees understand that they are giving their consent to disclose application information to University officials and to relevant funding committees.

Students must complete all of the following:

- Fellowship application form
- Diversity Statement

Please nominate students using the “Fellowships Nomination” application on go.grad.ucla.edu. The statement must be on UCLA letterhead and signed by the Department/Admission Chair.

If you see that a document that should be in landscape position is in portrait position, please rotate it before you upload it.

The University of California Office of the President has established the following eligibility criteria for the Graduate Opportunity Fellowship Award.

Full tuition and fees (and nonresident supplemental tuition if applicable) plus annual stipend to match the stipend amount that is provided to students in their respective academic programs.
For each UC–HBCU participant who applies to and is accepted by a UCLA PhD program, the UCLA Graduate Division will submit a request to UCOP for two years of cost-sharing fellowship support through the UC–HBCU Initiative Fellowship program. Graduate Summer Research Mentorship Program (GSRM)

Information subject to revision.

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Students self-nominate for this fellowship.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

| Awardees Announced | April 12, 2017 |

| Amount | $6,000 stipend. |

NOTES: Students funded during the summer must have been continuously registered/enrolled during the previous Spring Quarter and must be continuously registered/enrolled during the following Fall Quarter. Otherwise, their summer funding will be cancelled, and it will have to be repaid.

The students also must have a cumulative 3.0 GPA at time of award (i.e., at the time of payment disbursement).

| Purpose | The GSRM Program is designed to provide financial support for UCLA doctoral students in the arts, humanities, social sciences, public health and nursing. It is also designed to release recipients from employment or loan obligations that might delay progress in graduate study. Awardees should consider it as their principal/primary summer activity. |

A specific objective of the program is to promote opportunities for students to work closely with a faculty mentor in developing a paper for presentation at an academic conference and/or for publication. General goals are to facilitate close working relationships between faculty and students during the early stages of graduate education, to promote timely degree progress, and to encourage creative scholarship and research productivity.

| Program Expectations | GSRM awardees are expected to complete and submit a draft of a paper (either single-authored by the student or co-authored with the faculty mentor) by the end of the summer through the GSRM Program Evaluation. This paper should be submitted for presentation at a professional conference and/or for publication sometime during the following academic year (October–June). |
It is expected that the faculty mentor will be in frequent contact with the awardee during the summer and committed to working closely with the student. Awardees and mentors must complete program evaluation at the end of summer.

If the program evaluation and paper are not submitted by the end of the program, recipients will not be considered if applying for this program in subsequent years.

GSRM awardees may not work more than 25% time so as to not detract from the GSRM experience. Furthermore, awardees should be mindful that by accepting funding, they are declaring that this will be their foremost, sole activity in summer. Should a post-audit discover appointment(s) above 25%, the GSRM stipend will be prorated and reduced accordingly (e.g., a 50% TA appointment for a six-week summer session will result in a reduction of the GSRM stipend by at least 46%–6 weeks of the 13 that should have been devoted to the GSRM activities were spent as a TA).

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Other Summer Funding</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| GSRM awardees are not permitted to have other summer funding (e.g. but not limited to: the George and Sakaye Aratani Fellowship, Center for European and Russian Studies Summer Award, Foreign Language and Area Studies [FLAS], Graduate Dean’s Scholar Award, Lenart Travel Fellowship, National Institutes of Health [NIH] Training Grant, National Science Foundation’s Graduate Research Fellowship Program).

If a post-audit reveals multiple summer funding sources, the GSRM will be cancelled, and the student will need to repay the entire stipend.

<tr>
<td>• The mentoring relationship is a key component in this fellowship. The faculty mentor’s letter of recommendation must address the following:</td>

<tr>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>○ A clear plan for meetings, progress reports, research development, and expectations for final paper to be presented at a conference and/or for publication</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The applicant’s research overview should be written so that the work will be understandable and its significance appreciated by faculty who may not be experts in the applicant’s field.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The description of the research paper should present the following, as appropriate to the subject:</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
|   ○ The question(s), thesis or hypothesis being addressed;
- The project scope and the research approach, plan or methodology;
- A synopsis of any preliminary findings, results and/or analysis;
- The significance, originality and/or impact of the work.

- The relevance and significance of the mentoring activities to the achieving the project goals should be clearly articulated.

- If you have already received a GSRM award, briefly describe how the award enabled you to advance your research skills and progress, and note any presentations and/or publications you have authored or co-authored since receiving the award. Explain why a second GSRM award is justified, as they are made only in exceptional cases.

- Reviewers will evaluate all applications holistically, with particular attention to the:
  - Overall quality of project and proposal
  - Applicant’s readiness for this mentoring fellowship
  - Applicant’s academic record, as reflected in his/her transcripts
  - Mentor’s recommendation

Eligibility

The program is open to UCLA doctoral students in the arts, humanities, social sciences, public health and nursing who:

1. Are in year one, two or three of UCLA doctoral study at the time of application; priority will be given to students currently (at the time of application) in year one or two of doctoral study, and to students who have not already received a GSRM award;

2. Have not yet advanced to candidacy;

3. Are US citizens, permanent residents, international or registered California AB540 students. For international students, funding is subject to fellowship eligibility in regards to visa type. For those under AB540, funding will be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship;

4. Have been continuously enrolled/registered the previous Spring and will be continuously enrolled/registered the following Fall. If these conditions are not met, the awardee will be required to repay the summer award.

5. Must have cumulative 3.0 GPA at time of award (i.e., at the time of payment disbursement).
Students who have incomplete grades that remain unresolved (i.e., “I” grades) must provide a statement explaining the reason for the incomplete(s), the steps that will be taken to resolve the incomplete(s) and the timeline for doing so.

Awardees of the George and Sakaye Aratani Fellowship, Center for European and Russian Studies Summer Award, Graduate Dean’s Scholar Award, the National Science Foundation Graduate Research Fellowship Program, the Foreign Language & Area Studies (FLAS), Lenart Travel Fellowship, National Institutes of Health (NIH) Training Grant and other summer fellowships are not eligible to receive GSRM funding at the same time as their other funding.

Students may apply for the GSRM in only one doctoral degree program and may receive the award only twice. Note that second awards are made only in exceptional cases. In addition, prior-year recipients who did not complete the program evaluation nor submit their draft paper will not be considered.

Application Procedure

Students nominate themselves for this award.

By applying, students understand that they are giving their consent to disclose application information to University officials and to relevant funding committees.

To apply:

- Students must go to the 2017–18 Fellowship Application for Continuing Graduate Students site at www.grad.ucla.edu/asis/flap/apply.htm.

- Upload the following documents in the order listed as a single PDF file. Do not include the letter of recommendation as part of the PDF.

- Overview of Research Paper. Describe the work you will do in the summer to prepare your research for presentation at a regional or national conference and potentially for publication. Include the mentoring activities in which you and your faculty mentor will engage. If you have already received a GSRM award, briefly describe the research progress, presentations and/or publications that resulted from that experience. The document should be a maximum of four pages, double spaced, inclusive of images, graphs, tables, notes and/or references as appropriate. Minimum font size 11 pt., with at least 1” margins. Pages in excess of four pages will not be forwarded for review.

- An unofficial copy of your Graduate Transcript with Fall 2016 grades posted. The transcript printed from MyUCLA is acceptable. Do not submit a Degree Progress Report (DPR). If Fall Quarter is your first graduate term at UCLA, please include an unofficial transcript from the last college/university attended even if the last university was UCLA.
• Resume or Curriculum Vitae.

• Letter of recommendation from the faculty member who will serve as the mentor. The mentor does not have to be from the same department/program as the applicant.

  o In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document. The recommender will not need to email anything to the Student Affairs Officer.

  o It will be the student’s responsibility to ensure that the letter has been submitted on time. The online site will provide information about the status of the letter’s upload.

  o The letter of recommendation is due on or before the GSRM application deadline. Applications missing the letter of recommendation will not be reviewed.

• The mentor should describe the mentoring relationship and the paper that the student will complete during the summer. If a mentoring relationship has already been established between applicant and faculty member, the letter should distinguish between ongoing and additional mentoring activities that would occur during this period.

• If there is a document that should be in landscape position and it is in portrait position, please rotate it before you upload it.

Incomplete applications will not be accepted or forwarded for review.

16. If you wish to nominate a student, click on the “Add” button at the right of the name in the “Students for Nomination” box. This will move the name to the “Department Selection” box and remove it from the “Students for Nomination” box.

17. You can change the ranking of the students in the “Department Selection” section by highlighting the name and clicking and dragging the name to the desired position or by hitting the up or down arrow. The name at the top of the list will be your department’s #1 rank, i.e., the highest rank.

18. If you no longer wish to nominate a student, hit the “x” box. The name will return to the “Students for Nomination” section.

19. If the fellowship is open to Entering Students, you will see a box where you can enter the UID. Be sure to hit the “Add” button (do not hit the “Enter”/“Return” button). The name will show up in the “Department Selection” section above. If you later decide not to nominate this person, the name will appear in the “Students for Nomination” box.

SUBMIT NOMINATION(S)

20. Once you have added and ranked all students in “Department Selection,” hit the “Submit Nominations” button. This will bring up a query box asking if you’re ready to nominate your students to the Graduate Division. If you are, hit “OK.” If not, hit “Cancel.” Once you hit “OK,” the names will disappear from the “Department Selection” box and move up to the “Submitted” box. If necessary, you can view/upload PDF files again at this “Submitted” stage.

21. If you wish to nominate more students after you’ve “Submitted” your nominations to the Graduate Division, you would follow the processes above. However, the ranking cannot be changed. Any additional nominees will start at the next number. For example, if there are three names in the “Submitted” box, any new nominees will be numbered #4, #5, #6, etc.
VIEW AWARD STATUS

22. To see the status of your nominees, log back on to go.grad.ucla.edu and repeat steps 1-6. The award status will appear to the right of the student’s name in the “Submitted” box.

Preparing a Strong Application

- The mentoring relationship is a key component in this fellowship. The faculty mentor’s letter of recommendation must address the following:
  - Specific mentoring activities that will advance the student’s research skills toward the preparation of a dissertation.
  - A clear plan for meetings, progress reports and expectations for final products/deliverables.
- The proposal should be written so that the work will be understandable and its significance appreciated by faculty who may not be experts in the applicant’s field.
- The proposal should outline, as appropriate to the subject:
  - The question(s), thesis or hypothesis that will be developed;
  - The scope of the research and the research approach, plan or methodology;
  - A synopsis of any preliminary findings, results and/or analysis;
  - The significance, originality and/or anticipated impact of the work.
- The relevance and significance of the mentoring activities to the achieving the project goals should be clearly articulated.
- If you have already received a GRM award, briefly describe how the award enabled you to advance your research skills and progress, and note any presentations and/or publications you have authored or co-authored since receiving the award. Explain why a second GRM award is justified, as they are made only in exceptional cases.
- Reviewers will evaluate all applications holistically, with particular attention to the:
  - Overall quality of project and proposal
  - Applicant’s readiness for this mentoring fellowship
  - Applicant’s academic record as reflected in his/her transcripts
  - Mentor’s recommendation

Eligibility

The program is open to UCLA doctoral students in the arts, humanities, social sciences, public health and nursing who:

1. Are in year one, two or three of UCLA doctoral study at the time of application. Priority will be given to students currently (at the time of
2. Are not yet advanced to candidacy,

3. Are US citizens or permanent residents or are registered California AB540 students. Funding for the latter will be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship.

4. Must have cumulative 3.0 GPA at time of award (i.e., each payment disbursement) and throughout term of award;

5. Must be enrolled in 12 units throughout term of award.

Students who have incomplete grades that remain unresolved (i.e., “I” grades) must provide a statement explaining the reason for the incomplete(s), the steps that will be taken to resolve the incomplete(s) and the timeline for doing so.

Students from cultural, racial, linguistic, geographic and socioeconomic backgrounds that are currently underrepresented in graduate education are especially encouraged to participate in the program. Departments are encouraged to nominate students who contribute to the diversity mission of the University.

Students may apply for the GRM in only one doctoral degree program and may receive the award only twice. Note that second awards are made only in exceptional cases.

Cota-Robles awardees may receive a GRM only once in addition to their Cota-Robles 2 (CR2).

A student who receives a UC–HBCU Fellowship is ineligible for the GRM.

Student Application Procedures

Applicants must be nominated by their department, IDP or school.

When nominating, please be sure nominees understand that they are giving their consent to disclose application information to University officials and to relevant funding committees.

To apply for nomination, students must go to the 2017–18 Fellowship Application for Continuing Graduate Students site at www.grad.ucla.edu/asis/flap/apply.htm. There, they upload a single PDF of the following documents (except the letter of recommendation) in the order listed.

- A proposal describing the research question(s) or goal(s) and the scope of the research, the research training and/or activities, and the mentoring and collaborative activities that the student and their faculty member will undertake during the award period. The document should be a maximum of four pages, double spaced, inclusive of images, graphs, tables, notes and/or references as appropriate. Minimum font size 11 pt., with at least 1” margins. Pages in excess of four pages will not be forwarded for review.

- An unofficial transcript that includes Fall Quarter 2015 grades. The transcript printed from MyUCLA is acceptable. Do not submit a Degree Progress Report (DPR). If Fall Quarter is the first academic term at UCLA, please include an unofficial transcript from the last college/university attended.

- Student’s resume or curriculum vitae.

- If there is a document that should be in landscape position and it is in portrait position, please rotate it before you upload it.

- A letter of recommendation from the faculty member who will serve as the mentor.

  - In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document.

- The mentor should describe the mentor relationship and the project that the student will carry out during the academic year. If a mentoring relationship has already been established between the applicant and faculty member, the letter should distinguish between ongoing and additional mentoring activities that would occur during this period.

- It will be the student’s responsibility to ensure that the letter has been submitted on time. The online site will provide information about the status of the letter’s upload.

- The letter of recommendation is due on or before the GRM application deadline. Applications missing the letter of recommendation will not be reviewed.

Purpose

This program is intended to support doctoral students who are advanced to candidacy at the time of nomination (March 29) and are within one year of completing and filing the dissertation and planning to start teaching or research appointments soon after the end of their dissertation fellowship year.

Amount

$20,000 stipend plus standard tuition and fees (excluding nonresident supplemental tuition and professional degree supplemental tuition).

For 2016–2017, there were approximately 200 fellowships awarded under this program. The number of fellowships for 2017–2018 will depend on available funding.

Among the DYFs offered, up to three may be funded by the following program:

The Siegfried W. Ulmer Dissertation Year Fellowship

Up to three fellowships to support the dissertation year of European graduate students earning their doctoral degree at UCLA and who are in good academic standing. Priority will be given to candidates whose last name or whose mother’s Eligible applicants are U.S. citizens, permanent residents, international or registered California AB540 students. For international students, funding is subject to fellowship eligibility in regards to visa type. For those under AB540, funding will be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship.

Award recipients should complete all degree requirements within 12 months of beginning their dissertation fellowships and will be required to submit a report of their progress at the midpoint.

Failure to submit a progress report by the deadline will result in suspension of payment for subsequent terms.

These and the submission and eligibility criteria also apply to Distinguished TA recipients activating their Dissertation Year Fellowship.

Students who have incomplete grades that remain unresolved (i.e., “I” grades) must provide a statement explaining the reason for the incomplete(s), the steps that will be taken to resolve the incomplete(s) and the timeline for doing so.

The following minimum standards must be met or the award will be canceled:

1. Students must be officially advanced to doctoral candidacy at the time they are nominated by their departments (March 29, 2017). “Officially” means ATC documents have been received by the Graduate Division’s Academic Services. Exception: Distinguished TA recipients have until the end of Summer Session C to advance.

2. Students must file their dissertations within 12 months of beginning their fellowships. The thoroughness with which nominees have provided details in their application for completion of their dissertation is an important element in assessing their candidacy for a Dissertation Year Fellowship.
3. No student who has previously received any dissertation fellowship from Graduate Division funds (such as, but not limited to, a Distinguished TA Dissertation Year Fellowship) is eligible for a Dissertation Year Fellowship. Students who have received dissertation funding from other sources of funding specifically for the last year of write-up (e.g., Ford Foundation) also are not eligible.

4. Recipients must be registered and enrolled continuously in 12 units during the entire academic year. Registration/enrollment is not required for summer payments. Awardees starting their DYF on July 1 must have been continuously registered/enrolled in the previous Spring and must plan to continuously register/enroll in the following Fall. If not, their summer funding will be cancelled, and it will have to be repaid.

5. At the time of each payment’s disbursement, recipients must have a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 and maintain at least a cumulative 3.0 GPA during the entire time of the award.

6. It is expected that students receiving the Dissertation Year Fellowship will not be employed more than 25% time, including those who activate in the summer.

Dissertation Year Fellows are not eligible to receive Graduate Division funding of any kind after the last DYF payment has been issued.

Students may apply for the DYF in only one doctoral degree program.

A student who receives a UC–HBCU Fellowship is ineligible for the DYF.

Application Procedure

Students must be nominated by their departments. When nominating, please be sure nominees understand that they are giving their consent to disclose application information to University officials and to relevant funding committees.

To apply for nomination, students must go to the 2017–18 Fellowship Application for Continuing Graduate Students site at www.grad.ucla.edu/asis/flap/apply.htm.

There, they upload a single PDF of the following documents (except the letters of recommendation) in the order listed. If there is a document that should be in landscape position and it is in portrait position, they should rotate it before they upload it.

1. The student’s proposed plan for completing the dissertation. Evidence that the student can successfully complete the dissertation in the year of the award is an important factor in the selection process. The student’s name and “Proposed Plan for Completing the Dissertation” should appear at the top of each page. The document should be a maximum of four pages (pages in excess of four pages will not be forwarded for review), double spaced, inclusive of images, graphs, tables, notes and/or references as appropriate. Minimum font size 11 pt., with at least 1” margins. The plan should describe or include:

- A brief abstract that summarizes in a manner appropriate to the subject or discipline:
  - motivation, context and/or foreground for the research;
  - question or hypothesis being addressed;
  - theoretical framework, experimental approach or research methodology;
  - preliminary findings;
  - innovation, significance and/or impact of the work.

Typically, the abstract is about 150 to a maximum of 300 words in length. It is essential that it be written for faculty who may not be expert in the student’s field of research.

- A brief introduction that provides background and context for the work.

- A research plan that describes the current status of the research and the plan for addressing the remaining research aims/goals to complete the dissertation. This section may include images, graphs, and/or tables, if appropriate.

  If applicable, the plan should include information on sampling, instrumentation, data sources and collection, analyses and expected results. A synopsis of preliminary results or analyses may be incorporated as space permits.

- A detailed timeline with projected monthly progress for the remaining research, writing, revision and defense of the dissertation (see “Activation Term Selection” section below).

2. An unofficial transcript that includes Fall Quarter 2015 grades. The transcript printed from MyUCLA is acceptable. Do not submit a Degree Progress Report (DPR).

3. The student’s personal statement of career goals after receiving the degree (maximum two pages, double-spaced).

4. The student’s resume or curriculum vitae that includes the following, as appropriate to the discipline:
   - Education (degrees earned and in-progress, with dates; date of advancement to candidacy)
   - Extramural, departmental and Graduate Division awards, prizes and fellowships (include year and amount)
   - Published and submitted manuscripts, if any, while a doctoral student at UCLA. Provide full citations, including start/end pages. Do not include manuscripts in preparation.
   - Conference presentations, if any, while a doctoral student at UCLA. Indicate the conference date and place, and whether it was a poster or oral presentation. If there are multiple authors, place an asterisk by the name of the presenter.

- Other creative, academic and professional contributions in the student’s field, such as performances, exhibits, community and public service.

5. Two signed letters of reference, one of which must be from the dissertation chair. References should emphasize academic accomplishments, degree progress and feasibility of completing the dissertation within the 12-month period proposed by the applicant.

- In Step 3 of the online fellowship application process, provide the name and email address of the recommender. The system will then send your recommender an email with instructions as to how to submit the letter online as a PDF document. Repeat this process for the second recommender.

- The recommenders will not need to email anything to the department Student Affairs Officer.

- It will be the student’s responsibility to ensure that the letters have been submitted on time. The online site will provide information about the status of the letter’s upload.

- The letters of recommendation are due on or before the DYF application deadline. Applications missing letters of recommendation will not be reviewed.

Activation Term Selection

Awardees have the option to select one of three DYF start dates: July 1, October 1 or January 1. Whichever start date is selected, the awardee will have 12 months during which to complete and file the dissertation. In the application, please propose one of these activation dates. This is not a firm commitment but is essential information for reviewers to evaluate the likelihood that the work will be completed within the proposed timeframe.

Note that the DYF award does not override the deadline by which the student can file the dissertation nor the fee(s) s/he will have to pay as a result of when the dissertation is filed. More details can be found in the Standards and Procedures for Graduate Study at UCLA, which is available at www.grad.ucla.edu/gasaa/library/spfgs.pdf.

Hints to Students for Preparing a Strong Application

The proposal should be written so that the work will be understandable and its significance appreciated by faculty who may not be expert in the applicant’s field.

The proposal should outline, in a manner appropriate to the subject or discipline:

- question(s), thesis or hypothesis that will be developed;
- scope of the research and the research approach, plan or methodology;
- significance, originality and/or anticipated impact of the work.

An important review criterion is whether the applicant has provided substantial and compelling evidence that the dissertation can be completed within the funded year.

Each letter of recommendation should address the merits (e.g., quality, originality, significance) of the scholarship or research, as well as the distinction of the applicant. The letter must clearly state the likelihood the applicant will complete the dissertation within the timeframe described in the applicant’s proposal.

Applying for the Distinguished Teaching Assistants (i.e., those selected by UCLA’s Academic Senate)
TA DYF are eligible to apply for the Dissertation Year Fellowship for the coming academic year only. They should meet the eligibility criteria described above except that they have until the end of Summer Session C to advance to candidacy.

Distinguished TA DYF applicants should follow the application procedures already described.

Departmental Nomination Procedures

Use the Dissertation Year Fellowship Scoring Sheet. The form can be accessed on go.grad.ucla.edu.

Please nominate students using the “Fellowships Nomination” application on go.grad.ucla.edu. Details begin on page 153.

Employment Exception Request

DYF awardees are expected to only work at most at 25% time. In what should be rare circumstances where awardees wish to work 26% to 50% time, they must submit the information listed below in order for the request to be considered. No other work appointments above 50% will be allowed.

Requests for employment above 25% time in Winter or Spring terms must be submitted three weeks before the start of the corresponding term.

- An exception request on the Graduate Division Intranet (Jasmine) via their home department's Student Affairs Officer (SAO)/Staff Graduate Advisor.
- Supplemental materials (described below) to the SAO, who will then forward them to the Fellowships & Financial Services Office:
  - Forward letter (or email) of support from the dissertation chair with detailed information on academic benefit to the student and justification as to how the appointment will not impede progress towards completing the dissertation (e.g., provide hours to be spent on research, mentoring, etc.).
  - Include student’s explanation to the department chair for the exception request.
  - Provide payroll information; dates of employment, compensation, percentage of time.
  - Provide updated timeline of progress on dissertation writing with projected monthly progress for remaining research, writing, revision and defense of dissertation.
- Above 50% employment not permitted.
- 50% appointments as GSR may be considered.
- 50% appointments as TA or other Academic Student Employee (ASE) title will be denied.

Doctoral Student Travel Grants for Conferences, Professional Development and Off-Campus Research (DTG)

Effective Fall 2016 for eligible new entering doctoral students on all travel on or after 9/19/2016

Effective July 2016 for eligible continuing doctoral students on all travel on or after 7/1/2016

(Information subject to revision.)

This is a new program, effective with the 2016–17 fiscal year, that replaces the Research Travel Grant Pilot Program, the Conference and Travel Research Funds and, in most cases, the travel/research reimbursement from the Graduate Summer Research Mentorship, the Graduate Research Mentorship, and the Dissertation Year Fellowship.

Purpose

To encourage eligible doctoral students to present their work and network at conferences in their fields, to support travel associated with off-campus research and to enable students to take advantage of off-campus professional development opportunities.

Deadlines

Airfare & conference registration: Reimbursement can be provided in advance of the departure date or within 45 days after the travel has been completed.

All other expenses: Reimbursement must be requested within a reasonable amount of time, not to exceed 45 days after travel has been completed.

Amount

$1,000 ($100 minimum for each reimbursement request)
Each eligible new and continuing doctoral student will be provided up to $1,000 total reimbursement that can be used, in whole or in part, at any time through the student’s seventh year of enrollment in the doctoral program, as long as the student and the activities meet the eligibility requirements.

Students who were awarded the Dissertation Year Fellowship (DYF) in 2015–16 or earlier will not be eligible for this program. EXCEPTION: 2015–16 DYF awardees who activated their fellowship in Winter 2016 will be eligible as long as they are receiving DYF funding. Once the DYF funding has ended, the student is no longer eligible.

Eligibility

- Doctoral students with PhD, DEnv, DrPH and DMA degree objectives are eligible. Students enrolled in the Medicine MD, Dentistry DDS, and Law JD programs are not eligible. Students in self-supporting programs (e.g., EdD) are not eligible.
- US citizens, permanent residents, international or registered California AB540 students. For international students, funding is subject to fellowship eligibility in regards to visa type. For those under AB540, funding will be provided only if AB131 is still in effect for the duration of the fellowship.
- Doctoral students may or may not be advanced to candidacy at the time of travel.
- Students must engage in the activity and seek reimbursement within seven years of entering the doctoral program. Students in their eighth doctoral year and beyond are not eligible for this funding.
- Student must not have any unresolved incompletes (I grades) on record at the time the travel took place.
- Student must have been registered/enrolled in a minimum of 12 units during the academic term in which the research/travel/professional activity took place and for which reimbursement is being requested. For summer travel, the student must have met this requirement in the previous Spring quarter and register/enroll in the subsequent fall. In absentia registration is acceptable.
- Students on Filing Fee are not eligible for reimbursement of expenses incurred while on Filing Fee. Students cannot request reimbursement for expenses incurred during an approved leave of absence, while lapsed (unapproved leave), or after withdrawing from the university.
- Student must complete the Graduate Division General Conditions for Student Travel and submit with the relevant application available here.

Continuing students:

- Students who have already been awarded travel funds through the Cota-Robles2, the Graduate Summer Research Mentorship (GSRM), the Graduate Research Mentorship (GRM), the Research Travel Grant Program and/or the conference/travel research funding from their department that utilized Graduate Division funds will be eligible for the difference between $1,000 and the total of those travel awards. For example, Susie Bruin received $500 reimbursement from her GRM and $200 from her department’s Graduate Division travel awards. She may still receive $300 through this reimbursement program.

Cost Sharing for Individual Extramural Graduate Fellowships

Introduction  Academic graduate students are strongly encouraged to seek funding from sources outside UCLA (“extramural” support) for one or more years of graduate study. Preparing fellowship and grant applications contributes to a student’s professional development and garnering an award represents a significant achievement. To encourage academic programs to support this activity and to amplify the impact of the award, the campus will partner with the program to cover the cost of education (tuition and fees) not covered by the award. The cost-sharing details are provided below.
Award Description
The Graduate Division will provide 50% of the shortfall between the extramural award amount and UCLA’s cost of education (COE), defined as the sum of tuition, student services fees, campus fees, and non-resident supplemental tuition (NRST). The 50% cost-sharing for NRST is provided for a maximum of three years. The student’s graduate program is required to contribute the other 50% of the COE, including NRST if applicable. The department is responsible for covering 100% of professional differential supplemental tuition (PDST) or non-resident professional differential supplemental tuition (NRPDST), as applicable. PDST/NRPDST costs and self-supporting degree program fees are not eligible for cost sharing.

If a student receives several extramural awards that provide overlapping tuition/fees, or that together provide more than the maximum allowable stipend at UCLA, the Graduate Division and the academic program will work together to ensure that the student receives up to the maximum amount of merit-based support.

Student Eligibility
- Cost sharing is available to students enrolled in any UCLA graduate degree program except the following:
  - Self-supporting degree programs
  - Medicine: MD
  - Dentistry: DDS
  - Law: JD, LLM
- Graduate students with a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above are eligible for a cost-sharing commitment.
- The student must be continuously registered and enrolled full time (12 units) toward completion of his/her degree during the fellowship award period. Students enrolled in absentia are eligible.
- The student must maintain at least a 3.0 GPA for each quarter in which cost sharing is provided as a condition for continued support. A student who loses eligibility for cost-sharing can, after earning at least a 3.0 GPA in a subsequent quarter, have cost sharing restored for later quarters provided the fellowship remains active.
- All incomplete grades must be resolved within one quarter of their first appearance on the student’s transcript to maintain eligibility for cost sharing during the award period. Student will lose eligibility for Graduate Division’s portion of the cost-sharing if the incomplete remains unresolved after one quarter.
- Cost sharing is not available to students who have been enrolled at UCLA for more than seven years in master’s and doctoral study combined, or who have exceeded the published maximum time-to-degree for the academic program in which the student is enrolled.

Deadline
The academic program should contact Graduate Division Fellowships & Financial Services at least two weeks prior to the beginning of Fall or other term in which the extramural fellowship begins.

| Eligibility Criteria for Individual Extramural Fellowships | • The fellowship is awarded directly to a UCLA student and not to a program or department faculty member
• Extramural fellowships awarded in 2014–15 and later are eligible for cost sharing. Fellowships awarded in 2013–14 and earlier, including prior awards that were reserved for future payment, are not eligible.
• The extramural fellowship must have been awarded by a US-based agency, foundation, professional organization or similar entity.
• If the award amount is under $18,000 the award must be a minimum of $6,000 per quarter to be considering for cost sharing.
• Extramural awards that provide student support in the form of contracts or wages are not eligible for cost sharing.
• Loans and grants that are awarded based on financial need are not eligible for cost sharing. |

Introduction

Academic departments and faculty are strongly encouraged to seek funding external to UCLA. Extramural funding is a great catalyst in opening up educational, research and training opportunities as well as expanding funding streams. Garnering such support also brings increased reputational prestige. To encourage departments/faculty and to bolster the impact of such funding, the Graduate Division offers Matching Funds in support of training programs that have funding associated with Pre-Doctoral Graduate Students under the graduate student support category (stipends and/or fees/tuition).

Award Description

The Graduate Division will match up to 15% of the student-support portion of the grant. This support can be in the form of stipends, summer support, fees/tuition.

Extramural Grants in Combination with Graduate Division Fellowships

Guidelines

A student who is awarded an extramural fellowship may also be the recipient of one or more fellowships awarded by the UCLA Graduate Division. These currently include the Graduate Dean’s Scholar Award (GDSA), Cota-Robles Fellowship, Graduate Opportunity Fellowship (GOFP), University of California–Historically Black Colleges and Universities (UC–HBCU) Fellowship, Graduate Research Mentorship (GRM), Graduate Summer Research Mentorship (GSRM) and Dissertation Year Fellowship (DYF). The following guidance is offered for how multiple fellowships will be administered. Academic programs should contact Fellowships and Financial Services in the Graduate Division to discuss special cases.

1. A student may defer a Graduate Division fellowship to a subsequent year.
2. If the combined stipends from the extramural and Graduate Division fellowships equal or fall below the applicable annual maximum support limit,* the student may keep both stipends. If the combination of the extramural and Graduate Division fellowship stipends exceeds the applicable annual maximum support limit, the Graduate Division fellowship stipend will be reduced so that the sum does not exceed the annual maximum support level.

*Maximum limit of merit-based support: www.grad.ucla.edu/gss/library/maxsupport.htm

Encumbrance Database Report

The Graduate Division encumbrance report is available on go.grad in the “Funding” section under “Fellowships.” The report summarizes Graduate Division, departmental and extramural funding commitments for graduate students who have been awarded multi-year fellowships in your department. Multi-year fellowships such as the Graduate Dean’s Scholar Award and the Eugene V. Cota-Robles carry obligations from both the Graduate Division and the department.

The report identifies fellowship recipients and sources of funding which appear on our records for the current year and beyond.

Please compare this report with your department records and let us know if there are any inconsistencies or missing entries. Providing teaching assistantship or graduate student researcher positions can satisfy departmental obligations for fees and stipends. Recipients of extramural awards such as the NSF and Ford may receive supplementary support from the Graduate Division, and we have included commitments to those fellows in this report.

You can mail corrections to Fellowships & Financial Services Office, 1228 Murphy Hall, Campus Mailcode 144401, email to uclafellowship@grad.ucla.edu or fax them to x50017.

Graduate Work-Study Program (GWSP)
