Evelyn F. Murphy, economist and former Lt. Governor of Massachusetts, is founder and President of The WAGE Project, Inc., a grassroots, action-oriented organization dedicated to enabling every working woman in America to be paid what she is worth.

She is also corporate director and frequent commentator on the gender wage gap in print and electronic media, such as her recent appearance on the Katie Couric show to demonstrate salary negotiation for women.

May 21st
Tuesday, 3:00 – 5:30PM
Bunche Hall 6275

RSVP
Space is limited!
RSVP link:
http://worksmartgetpaid.eventbrite.com

The Ph.D. Career Planning Series is a collaborative project of:
• Academic Services, UCLA Graduate Division
• The California NanoSystems Institute (CNSI)
• The Society of Postdoctoral Scholars at UCLA
• David Geffen School of Medicine, Office of Postdoctoral Affairs in the Biosciences

Evelyn Murphy, Ph.D.
Founder and President,
The WAGE Project, Inc.